

Courtesy

Genuine courtesy means much more to us than mere politeness, and which often goes no farther than the conventionalities demanded by etiquette.

An honest desire to please—is our definition of courtesy.

It is our aim to serve you pleasantly as well as promptly.

To An Appreciative Husband—

Sometimes, especially at such a kindly season as Christmas always is, you probably reflect in mingled wonder and gratefulness upon the girl who cast her lot with yours.

Wouldn't you like THIS Christmas to give her something that should speak your thought of her and at the same time could lighten the endless round of daily labor she so willingly performs?

Wouldn't you like THIS Christmas to give her a

HOOVER Electric Suction Sweeper

Almost any woman will tell you the HOOVER is a Helper that electrically beats out from rug depths all nap-wearing disease-laden grit. It sweeps up all surface litter, erects crushed nap, freshens colors, and cleans by air.

It does all in one easy rapid dustless operation. It not only saves labor, but the rugs as well.

Give the woman who is your wife—or your mother—the HOOVER this Christmas and you give her one of the finest gifts a thoughtful man can choose. Order now to be in time to be pleased to call at any time and demonstrate.

"I Want to Stop in at the Bank"

So often you hear people say, "Well, I have to go to the bank, as though this were an unpleasant duty, grudgingly performed.

But if you listen, you'll hear a lot of people saying, "I want to stop in at the Union Savings Bank."

That's Union Savings service, the kind that makes people want to come again, where those who take care of their needs are pleasant, attentive and efficient.
