GAS STORAGE CO. BEGINS OPERATIONS

Michigan Gas Storage Company, a subsidiary established by Consumers Power Company to help provide a greatly increased supply of natural gas for 244 Michigan communities, has set up offices in Jackson and begun operations. It was announced today.

The new company has hired 180 men and women formerly employed by Consumers. Most of these are located in the Michigan gas field areas.

Michigan Gas Storage Company will own and operate the big natural gas storage project agreed upon by Consumers and Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company and approved by the Federal Power Commission. Panhandle will deliver natural gas from the Southwest to Michigan Gas Storage, which will store it during the warmer months, then deliver it to Consumers at city gates during the winter.

Ownership of Michigan Gas Storage is divided between Consumers and Panhandle, with Consumers owning 75 per cent.

Michigan Gas Storage proposes to build a 24-inch pipeline from Freedom Junction to a junction with pipeline near Mt. Pleasant, probably in 1948, since it is doubtful that steel for the line will be available before then. During 1947 the company plans to drill approximately 100 wells in the Waterfield and Cranberry Lake fields—an essential step in converting them into storage fields. It will also enlarge the gathering facilities in the field and build a pipeline from the Munkegon River station to Mt. Pleasant. The Chippewa River station will be completed and the Munkegon River and Freedom Junction stations enlarged.

Storage of natural gas in the Waterfield and Cranberry Lake areas will begin next summer, according to D. E. Herringshaw, vice president of Michigan Gas Storage. "We plan to release some gas from storage to help meet the needs of Consumers Power during the winter," he said. "However, the pressures in the gas fields must be built up over the next few years by putting in more gas during the warm months than we take out during the cold weather. That means that the full benefits of the storage project will not be realized until two or three years. When the field has been repressured, Consumers will be assured of enough gas to handle its customers' needs for 25 years. In making this statement, I am mindful that our customers' needs will probably grow to two or three times their present size during the 25-year life of the contract."

Consumers has accepted no applications for gas househeating service since last May. It considers it unlikely that this can be lifted until after next winter.

REPORT ON SCOUT MERIT BADGES

In a report issued by David P. Stuart, Chairman of the Advancement Committee of the Washtenaw-Livingston Boy Scout Council, it was revealed that during 1946 scouts enrolled in troops served by the Washtenaw-Livingston Boy Scout Council qualified for 622 Merit Badges. These represented most of the 109 different Merit Badges available with interesting indications given by the number of Merit Badges earned in the various fields. The Home Repairs or Handicraft Merit Badge led the list with 46 different scouts qualified in this field. Next in popularity was the personal health Merit Badge with 41 scouts earned the Public Health Merit Badge and 26 the Swimming Merit Badge. 27 qualified for the Safety Merit Badge Award and 24 for Pioneering.

First Aid which was qualified by 20 different scouts. The merit badge plan in scouting provides experience and opportunity for a boy to explore various possible vocations and a vocational counselor—a specialist in that particular field and goes over the student requirements with him. The counselor makes suggestions on his preparation and when he feels again to the merit badge council.

Altogether 200 men have assisted in the merit badge program during the past year in the Washtenaw-Livingston Council.

COMMUNICATION

But few citizens of Manchester are aware of the fact that there are 26 cities and villages by the name of Manchester in existence. Early in the fall I received a telegram from Manchester, New Hampshire announcing the celebration of their 100th Anniversary and wanted to know about the other 25 Manchesters on the globe including Manchester, Michigan. I went to the library and with the assistance Miss Jane Palmer dug into the early history of our village. A telegram was sent directly to Manchester, England sent a letter to me stating in part viz. "The 800 odd Journalists of Manchester (England) are soon to produce a special newspaper which, while it is in aid of our National Press Charities, it is intended mainly to be a tribute to Manchester itself." They asked for greeting and the main interests and stated that a First Aid which was qualified by 20 different scouts.

could not stay on their feet. Ambrose Lantz was top scorer for Manchester with 16 points. The Manchester Reserves also lost their game 28 to 24.

The Manchester Dutchmen
traveled to Dexter Friday January 24, 1947 for their fifth League game of the season. Manchester lost the game by the score of 45 to 20.
The Dexter team jumped to an early lead of 14 to 2 at the quarter. Manchester played better ball in the second period with a half time score of 22 to 11. The Dutchmen pulled even closer in the third period with a score of 35 to 28, but failed to keep up the fight in the last period losing by 45 to 30, with Ambrose Lantz, high point man, scoring 14 points for the Dutchmen. The Dutchmen's second team lost its game to Dexter by 25 to 44, with Jim Walkowi being Manchester's high point man with 12 points.
Manchester travels to Grass Lake on Tuesday January 28 for an out of League game. The Dexter game was the last game for Coach Ker, who leaves for Pontiac. Our new Coach McCabe is the Coach for the Grass Lake game.

PEOPLE ARE ASKING THESE QUESTIONS ABOUT ARMY ENLISTMENT

- Q. What educational benefits do I get under the GI Bill of Rights?
A. If you serve honorably on active duty for a period of 90 days, one day of which is served between September 16, 1940, and the date of termination of the present war, or you are discharged because of an actual service-incurred injury or disability incurred within that first 90-day period of service, you are, upon discharge, entitled to one year of education in the college, trade or business school of your choice for which you can qualify. In addition, each month of active duty, including the first three prior to the termination of the war, entitles you to another month of post-secondary education, up to 36 months.
Your tuition, laboratory fees, etc., up to $500 per ordinary school year, may be paid by the government. Also, you will receive $55 a month living allowance; $50 a month if you have dependents.
Q. What about family allowances?
A. For men enlisting or reenlisting now, family allowances will continue until six months after the war is officially ended.
Q. What are my chances of going overseas?
A. If you enlist for 3 years, you may select to serve in any overseas theater which has openings, especially Japan or Korea.
Q. Can I still choose the branch of service I want to serve in?
A. Yes. You can pick any branch which has quotas to be filled, if you enlist for 3 years.
Q. Is there any way I can reenlist in my old grade?
A. Yes, you can, if you reenlist for a 3-year term within 20 days after your honorable discharge.
Q. Is there any other way I can reenlist in grade?
A. Yes, if you held one of certain military occupational specialties, and were discharged on or after May 12, 1945, you can reenlist in a grade depending on the length of time you held the desired

The Broadway Express
The Stage Door: Craig Reynolds, first actor to enlist (and the first to get hit with a Purple Heart), gets a few roles these days he has to take odd jobs to balance the budget. . . . Salaries are rolling back. The $200 a week comedians again are being offered $50, instead of the wartime bribe paychecks—and accepting them. . . . Profit on "The Jolson Story" now is figured "in excess of five million bucks." . . . The dog in "Lovely Me" has been ordered to move from his boarding house because he comes in too late (after curtain time) and wakes up the other dogs. . . . The role of the dancing champ (the appears only in the first act) of "Cyrano" is so strenuous he has to alternate with another. . . . And you have troubles? Two days after Helen Walker's producer announced she would dance "for the first time" in her next role, she was badly fractured in a crash.

Midtown Vignette: Norman Corwin and the 4th of July. He is also the top male singer in the revived "Street Scene." . . . He is in direct action. . . . He was dining in a midtown spot when a drunk at the next table slugged him and knocked him out. . . . Corwin went over, grabbed the nuisance in his arms, carried him to the street and dumped him into the gutter, saying: "You're spoiling my dinner, Adolf!"

The Press Box: Georgia offered a striking illustration of the methods used by Fascists to take advantage of confusion and strong-arm their way to power. . . . The Fascist government. . . . A Fascist Gazette observed so many people and administrators getting top jobs. Washington is no place for a felt hat. . . . After giving the news from Rome the once-over, you'd never think the Fascist Gazette was signed 44 years ago. . . . The Jersey Journal solved the mystery of the "J. S." on the new FDR dime after checking with the government. They do not stand for Joe Stalin. They are the initials of John Stuenkel, chief of the Philip Mint.

Character Study: He underplays his help but overplays the waiter. . . . He takes care to avoid serious crowds but writes for a few punts on a cliche. . . . He greets every copy line in show with a colorful comment but thinks a guy is a celebrity when he has more wits than children.

The Late Watch: Those straphangers salaries paid $100 stars are coming down fast. Drop in box office receipts, curtailed production, etc., have studies pruning costly stars. . . . Many stars, however, are willing to take a share. Supply and demand, you know. . . . Source will market 20 million new black label platters at 39 cents retail. That 20 to 40 p.c. under current market and is the first price break in this field since Dec. 7, 1941. . . . Tropical Park track reports attendance was up 20,000 but the "take" is down 10 per cent. . . . They have notified all night clubs they must be closed and empty at 4 a. m. This is very funny considering most joints are empty much earlier.

New York Envoys: Justin McCarthy, the young lion-walker, is well known to Broadwayers. . . . He sold several of them plenty of "shares" in an electronic and helicopter firm which flopped. . . . Most of his contacts are a little miffed with Justin because "he didn't at least apologize" with some of the loot he got away with—sliding up night club patrons in their cars—as he waited for light to change. . . . He almost talked a famous radio star into starting a manufacturing company with him. . . . One of his stock victims was ready to tell the gendarmes about him six months ago (which would have ended his career of crime before it started), but Justin talked him out of it. . . . The irony of it: Had he gone to the housewife then, the term would have been short. Now he may spend his life in jail.

Curran's admiration for Betty of State Marshall amounts to hero worship. He is said to have referred to Marshall as "the greatest living American." . . . Alan Ladd doesn't know when he's well off; just bought a coast night club. . . . Despite the slump everywhere, Ladd is out across the river report a 15 per cent spike. . . . Bookies are blowing their tops because too many females are coming into their racket. . . . Mrs. FDR shaking hands with a passerby admirer near the Cherry-Netherland hotel.

COLOR AND GAIETY MARK FIESTA
Saxon influence in the annual mid-winter Fiesta at Brownsville, Texas, are these two "Americanoes" dancing the "Arabe lapaia," a typical Mexican hot dance, under a banana tree.

IN THESE UNITED STATES
Gala Texas Fete Revives Colorful Days on Frontier

BROWNSVILLE, TEX.—Fired by the passion of hot Spanish blood and tempered by subdued Anglo-Saxon influence, the Chorro Days Fiesta, Carnival of Nations, major winter celebration of Texas, crowds three centuries of life along America's first and last frontier into four days and nights of frolicsome gaiety.

Along the border of the United States and Mexico, where the blood of Americans and Latins once clashed but now blends, 300,000 people from both sides of the Rio Grande will cavort on February 13, 14, 15 and 16 in an hilarious pageant of pre-Lenten fantasy unparaled in America.

Chorro Days hearkens back to the colorful days when titled Spanish landowners and fierce soldiers brought the sword and the cross of Old World civilization to a wild frontier.

To make the celebration as authentic as possible, residents of the semi-tropical Rio Grande valley of Texas and their neighbors from northern Mexico dress in typical costumes of the early day Spanish colonial and his lady.

The men become charros, symbol of that Spanish cavalier, horse man and gentleman for whom the fiesta is named. A charro is a young man of vitality, usually of the desert, who rode the plains of Mexico in quest of adventure and love.

Colorful Attrs.
He was dressed in tight-fitting trousers, embroidered with bright braid, a jacket of dark blue with silver buttons, a gay sombrero and silver spurs. His beard was trimmed neatly, pointed at the tip. His feminine counterpart was the "China," a name derived from the holiday costume she wore—the length, light rainbow skirt spangled with uncounted bright sequins and a blouse of rainbow silk. She wore white gardenia or scarlet hibiscus blossoms in her hair in anticipation of the low key, white charro, who rode up on his black stallion to serenade her at the Spanish bandstand.

Nurse Recalls War Days of '98
Nurse Nuts, Calif. — Favorite patient of doctors and nurses at a coast night club. . . . Despite the slump everywhere, Ladd is out across the river report a 15 per cent spike. . . . Bookies are blowing their tops because too many females are coming into their racket. . . . Mrs. FDR shaking hands with a passerby admirer near the Cherry-Netherland hotel.

TOO MUCH, TOO WELL
It Shouldn't Happen to Expert—But Reports Indicate It Does

It pays to be an expert—sometimes, that is. For instance, out in San Luis Obispo, Calif., Prof. James Merson was demonstrating to the California State Polytechnic institute class how to crank a tractor without breaking an arm—and broke his arm.

Then there are experts on safety like Mrs. James C. Carmack of Providence, R. I. She went to make a speech on the subject: hobbled into the auditorium on crutches—had a little accident en route.

Still on the subject of speeches, there was a San Francisco authority on happy home life. He asked a court to postpone his wife's divorce suit because he could keep a date to lecture. His subject: "How To Be Happy Through Marriage."

An expert on wills was the late Charles Tressler Law, Hackensack, N. J. lawyer. As a result of his wide legal practice, he acquired a national reputation on the subject. Recently his will came up in court and was barred—it hadn't been witnessed.

When Francis Curry had to leave his New York liquor store for a few minutes recently, he entrusted the establishment to the safe care of a friend, Frank Reines, a detective.

STUDENTS AT NEW COLLEGE WILL READ '100 BEST BOOKS'
PITTSFIELD, MASS.—Continuing their educational devotion based on "the 100 best books of modern thought," a new non-denominational college for 300 students will be opened here next September by Liberal Arts, Inc.

Dr. Stringfellow Barr, who largely is credited with new approach to liberal education, will head the new institution, which will be established on a 700-acre site in the town of Northampton, Mass.

It was Dr. Barr who introduced the organized reading of 100 volumes of the best from Homer to the present day at St. John's college in Annapolis, Md., in 1937. He is now president of that institution to found the liberal education.

Endowed with $4,500,000 by Paul W. Mellon, the new liberal arts college will be situated on the old Dan R. Hanna estate, about a mile and a half from Tanglewood, the home of George Vanderbilt's Berkshire estate.
