ture for land and buildings, central office equipment, outside plant facilities, station equipment and general operational needs, totaled $48,128,000.
 During the year, the company added 112,500 more telephones in its territory of which some 8,500 were rural stations. Michigan Bell now serves a total of more than 1,950,000 telephones.
 A significant result of the company's program was the reduction of its backlog of new service orders by more than 44 percent. Also high on the company's achievement list for 1951 was a further broadening of its extended-area service plan to include a total of 216 towns in Michigan.

Mich. Bell Reduces Backlog 44 Percent

With a financial outlay approaching the $50,000,000 mark, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company up the year with substantial gains in its projected expansion and service improvement program. The company's total expenditure for land and buildings, central office equipment, outside plant facilities, station equipment and general operational needs, totaled $48,128,000.

Inside Michigan Magazine Has New Outdoor Editor

Vic Beresford, for the past six years editor and publisher of the Wayne County Sportsmen's Club has announced that starting Jan. 1 he will be outdoor editor of Inside Michigan Magazine.
 Mr. Beresford feels that this new post will give him a much greater opportunity to preach the cause of conservation of Michigan's natural resources.

They Look to You for Help

Geraldine Czarnecki visits Saul Morse during recess from schoolroom classes in polio ward of New York hospital. These two young patients, and tens of thousands of others in all parts of the country look to the March of Dimes for help when polio strikes. Tripled polio incidence of the past four years has taxed the March of Dimes so severely that the 1952 drive period has been doubled to include all of January.

Smartly Styled 1952 Plymouth

The over-all beauty of the new Plymouth for 1952 is typified by the impressive styling of the front end. Designed for smart appearance and brilliant performance, Plymouth has many new features contributing to driving ease and passenger comfort. The trim design of the new hood molding and ornament and the hood medallion are examples of styling refinements. The luxurious interiors, with their perfection of color harmony and their quality fabrics, blend beautifully with the car's exterior colors.

The Arthur Jenters also entertained at a holiday dinner honoring their son Russell. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jenter and children, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Dresselhouse and Dina and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steele, Jr. and Barbara. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Seckinger were holiday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Faulhaber.

LOCALS

It's Not True
 Claims of a record-breaking winter for 1950-51 are highly exaggerated. All the records for long, hard winters are still held by the years during the four glacial periods before about 30,000 B.C. Then "winters" lasted for centuries and the earth was covered with mountains and rivers of ice. All living things died and all land was barren of vegetation. Even continents and oceans appeared and disappeared.

Smartly Styled 1952 Plymouth

The over-all beauty of the new Plymouth for 1952 is typified by the impressive styling of the front end. Designed for smart appearance and brilliant performance, Plymouth has many new features contributing to driving ease and passenger comfort. The trim design of the new hood molding and ornament and the hood medallion are examples of styling refinements. The luxurious interiors, with their perfection of color harmony and their quality fabrics, blend beautifully with the car's exterior colors.

The Arthur Jenters also entertained at a holiday dinner honoring their son Russell. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jenter and children, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Dresselhouse and Diane and Mrs. Ed Steele, Jr. and Barbara. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Seckinger were holiday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Faulhaber.

LOCALS
 Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Dresselhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jenter entertained at the home of the former honoring the baptism of the Ronald Jenters' son, James Arthur, by Rev. Karl H. A. Rest. Others at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steele, Jr. and Barbara and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenter and Russell Jenter of Los Angeles, California.

It's Not True
 Claims of a record-breaking winter for 1950-51 are highly exaggerated. All the records for long hard winters are still held by the years during the four glacial periods before about 30,000 B.C. Then "winter" lasted for centuries and the earth was covered with mountains and rivers of ice. All living things died and all land was barren of vegetation. Even continents and oceans appeared and disappeared.
