EIGHTY-SEVENTH YEAR

NUMBER 17

MANCHESTER, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN

THURSDAY, DEC. 31, 1953

FIVE CENTS PER COPY $2.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

January Starts Polio Drive

An "unofficial" goal for Washtenaw County set at $11,000 more than was raised a year ago has been announced for the annual March of Dimes campaign, slated to get under way Saturday, January 2nd.

The Washtenaw Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis listed the county-wide goal for 1954 as $75,000. In last year's drive, a record of $63,685 was contributed in the county.

County chairman for the campaign, which will extend through the month of January, is Mrs. Rane Pray of Ann Arbor. She reminds us that more money is needed to press research and tests on various treatments and vaccines which hold great promise or halting the dread crippling disease, and to provide treatment for afflicted persons of all ages.

Mrs. Raymond C. Kerr has been selected to chairman the "Dimes" campaign in the Manchester area. Mrs. Kerr today listed her subcommittees and their chairmen, including: Mothers' March (slated for the last week of January), Mrs. Fred Atkinson; schools, Mrs. John Bunney; organizations, Mrs. Kenneth Koubas; canisters, Mrs. Densel Fuller; posters and displays, Mrs. Tom Walton; and dime cards, Mrs. Marie Schuerer.

Although no official goals will be set for the drive, all areas will attempt to increase their 1953 totals substantially. Last year, a total of $971.12 was raised from this community, the majority of the amount coming from the March of Dimes cards and the annual Mothers' March. Ann Arbor led the county, money-wise, contributing over $35,000 to the charitable and worth-while cause.

The March of Dimes

Testing the new vaccine to prevent polio is expected to involve about half a million children this summer, according to information received from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis by Mrs. R. C. Kerr, chairman of the Manchester March of Dimes. Cost of testing the long-range effectiveness of the trial vaccine will be $7,500,000. For, although safety has now been assured, it will take the largest scientifically-controlled tests in medical history to prove whether the vaccine will actually protect against polio in its natural form. In the original gamma globulin study approximately 55,000 children took part.

The two elements of polio prevention are the now familiar gamma globulin and the promising new vaccine, Mrs. Heilbrunn said. GG is already in the field; the vaccine is now on the proving ground, but it is GG to which we will turn for protection again in 1954, since the results of the massive tests of the trial vaccine will not be known until the end of the 1954 polio season. The price tag for expanding the GG program this year is expected to be $13,000,000.

In addition to concentrating every available means on preventing polio, all other parts of the program of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the local chapters must continue. This involves caring for victims of polio, education of physicians, physical therapists, nurses and medical social workers, maintaining the respirator centers, paying for nurses, and public education.

The March of Dimes drive will be held during the month of January, with an unofficial quota in Washtenaw County of $75,000. One-third of all contributions to the March of Dimes in 1954 will be used in the polio prevention program, providing gamma globulin when it is needed, and administering the vaccine to a large group of children for the first time, according to a report received by the local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The remaining two-thirds of each contribution will be divided equally between the local chapter and the National Foundation.

Funds in the Washtenaw county chapter are used to care for patients in the county who have polio or have had the disease, Mrs. Kerr said. "Polio is an unusually expensive and tragic disease because its main attribute is crippling and because it strikes chiefly at youngsters—a large number of whom must be treated for many years," the chairman added. One of the peculiarities of the National Foundation—and one that reflects the poignancy and costliness of the polio fight—is that it spares no expense to get a polio patient into an iron lung to save his life and then spares no expense to get him out again so that his life may be worth living. It was explained. There is no limit to the amount of money which may be spent on an individual patient. The chapter provides what the patient's doctor says is necessary for as long a period as the doctor orders it. In some cases treatment of Washtenaw county patients has been continued for years, and there are numerous polio victims who have had to have several operations as a result of the disease, the chairman pointed out.

A great deal of money is needed to support the respirator centers, one of which has been established at the University of Michigan Hospital, and our patients in this county needing care in the center have the advantage of being close to their families and friends, the chairman said. The center at University Hospital serves five states in this area.

Mrs. James Flynn of Milford spent Christmas Eve with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walsh and on Christmas Day Mr. and Mrs. Walsh, Michael and Mrs. Flynn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sheehan at Allen Park.

Burglar Escapes, Leaves Glass Eye

Johnny Wallace and Wesley Braun received quite a surprise early Saturday evening as they entered Carl M. Schaible's garage on 512 West Main Street when they found a burglar at work on the safe in the garage.

Wallace and Braun went to the garage to get the wrecker in order to tow the Braun car back to the highway after it left the road on an icy patch on M-11 near the William Ahrens farm.

As the men entered the building they heard the pounding and frightened the burglar as they attempted to see who was in the office.

The frightened burglar ran from room to room trying to find an escape with the two local men in pursuit. At one point as Braun attempted to grab him the burglar threw a hammer and hit Braun on the hand. Braun was not seriously hurt.

The man escaped when he ran through a plywood door and as he did so he lost his grey glass eye as his head went through the plywood.

The burglar was about 5½ feet tall and wore a false optic in his left eye, state police said.

He had pounded the combination off the safe when the men surprised him, according to a report from the State Police who were called to investigate.

His appearance is sponsored by a temporary committee composed of Mrs. F. N. Menifee, Mrs. Louis Fead, Mrs. E. N. Goddard, Phillip McCullam, Myrl E. Underwood, Stewart E. Butts, Harold Dorr, William Hein, Cecil O. Creal and others. A permanent committee will be established in the near future.

Manchester School Building Program

Question Box

In January, voters of the Manchester School District will be asked to vote on a bond issue to build new school facilities to take care of the enlarged district. Questions are being asked on details of the building program. This question box is being carried to answer these questions.

QUESTION: After the building program is completed, will you continue to operate rural schools?

ANSWER: No. All pupils will be brought in to the Manchester schools.

QUESTION: How large will the school enrollment be, when all are brought into Manchester?

ANSWER: Predicted enrollment for the fall of 1954 is 541 elementary students and 183 high school, a total of 723. This compares to a present enrollment of 690. At present, about 120 students are attending rural schools.

QUESTION: When will the bond issue vote be held?

ANSWER: Some time between the 20th and 30th of January.

QUESTION: Why are we waiting?

ANSWER: The architect, Clark Ackley, is now busy drawing up plans for the new high school. As soon as the preliminary plans have been approved by the school board, the election date will be set.

QUESTION: Will the public have a chance to see the plans?

ANSWER: Yes. Plans and perspective drawings of the building will be published in the paper. If possible, a scale model will be displayed in a downtown store.

QUESTION: What will the new high school contain?

ANSWER: A gymnasium that can be divided into boys' and girls' physical education areas, a new homemaking room, a farm and industrial shop, new science room, agriculture room and laboratory, commercial room, music room, library, study hall and several general classrooms. Administration offices will also be in the new building.

QUESTION: Where are the present high school facilities lacking?

ANSWER: Most of our special rooms are too small and out-of-date. This is true of our commercial room, science room and art room. The homemaking room will be too crowded for future enrollment. The gym is too small and the building is lacking in general purpose rooms. It is more economical to build these features into a new building than to attempt to modernize the present high school to meet today's needs. On the other hand, the present high school can easily be converted for elementary use.

QUESTION: Are there other advantages to building a new high school? Elementary and high school students will be separated.

ANSWER: Yes. All elementary pupils will be located on the present site, while the high school students will be in their own building. This is good from the standpoint of playground equipment, and for discipline and control.

Vets Council enters Juvenile Detention Issue

The Washtenaw County Council of Veterans has entered the county's much talked of juvenile detention issue, hoping to ease the problem of housing for children found to be neglected or dependent in emergencies.

The council has 3,000 members from all parts of the county and Oscar Berkley is the commander. He appointed a committee of three to meet with representatives from the Board of Supervisors to try to work out a plan for the housing of needy juveniles.

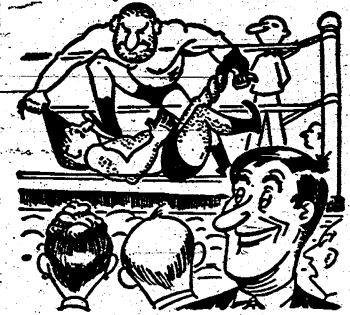

The committee appointed by Mr. Berkley consists of J. Walter Daschner of Ypsilanti, chairman, Jack L. Craven of Ann Arbor and Veterans Service Director Donald Bachman. Presumably the three-man committee will get together with the board's seven-member juvenile affairs and probate court committee which has been studying the problem.

At the board's last meeting, the committee, which has met with a number of social agencies dealing with children, reported that more time was required to go into the detention question.

The county is without quarters to house juveniles in emergencies, except at the boarding home, at the present time. Late in 1950, Probate Judge Jay H. Payne told the committee he would no longer use detention quarters, termed inadequate, at the County Infirmary.

Washtenaw Bulk Plant Moves To New Place

The Washtenaw Farmer's Oil Company has come a long way since it started in 1934 with a capital investment of farmers of $1,800. Today it is worth over $100,000. In addition to its constant growth, the cooperative has paid $70,000 back to its members in stock and patronage dividends since it was started.

The new plant is located on U.S. 23, a short way out of Ypsilanti. It has a total capacity of 84,000 gals., and is reported to have the most modern equipment available.

Schantz and Walter Brown, manager. Mr. Brown has been manager for the past eleven years. He is resigning the first of the year to devote his entire time to the managerial duties of the Ypsilanti Farm Bureau. Mr. Jeddie Staley has been appointed new manager. After the first of the year, he will live on the Heininger farm on Bemis Rd., Saline.

COLD MYSTERY by Science Features

The common cold may be a simple illness to many people, but it is a complex problem for medical research. Scientists have made tremendous progress in developing drugs that cure and prevent serious maladies, but they are still trying to solve the mystery of the common cold.

The cold, as well as other respiratory diseases such as influenza, "strep throat" and pneumonia, is caused by some of the countless viruses that float in the air. The smallest living creatures known, they are drawn into the nose, throat and lungs by the air we breathe, and multiply in the cell linings.

Many of the viruses have been isolated and classified in the laboratories, but the common cold germ, thought to be the smallest of all, cannot be kept alive for study.

Statistics show that the average person has two colds a year, that cause half of the absences from work, and are responsible for a 120 million dollar annual loss in wages.

It is paradoxical that there is no cure for this time-wasting annoying illness while serious respiratory diseases like pneumonia can be arrested with such new drugs as terramycin.

It's reassuring to know, however, that extensive research continues — by the National Institute of Health, universities and pharmaceutical laboratories — so soon the common cold may go the way of other conquered diseases.

For great is Thy mercy toward me, and Thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell. —(Psalm 86, 13.)

Life would be unendurable indeed if we were not assured by the Word of God that the repentant sinner can change himself and be changed, through the forgiveness and the mercy of the Lord Almighty, into goodness and righteousness—delivered from the hell of his own making.

Businessmen's Bowling League

There were some changes made in the Manchester Businessmen's Bowling League this week as A. B. C. Service overtook and passed Mary's Tavern team by taking 3 out of 4 points from K & W Farm Supply. This enabled the Service team to take the league lead by 1 point over Mary's Tavern, who held 2nd place. The fellows who lead A. B. C's to the win were Dewey Hartbeck (560 series), Elwin Benedict (541 series) and Roy Marx (516 series). Bill Kroske of the K & W team, threw a 515 series. Spike's Mobil Service team slipped into 3rd place in the standings by grabbing 3 points from Mary's Tavern. John Dunny, Jr. (542 series) and Jake Trent (521 series) for Spike's and Fritz Wurster (530 series) for Mary's were the big guns in this match.

Mann's Millers were soundly beaten by Klager's Hatcheries, who took all 4 points home with them. Mann's were never in the match as Klager's were led by Dick Widmayer (549 series), Dick Weir (518 series) and Paul Widmayer (506 series).

Short's Electric Service took on Widmayer's Sales & Service team and got 3 points for their efforts, although Ronnie Jenter had a 584 series and a 246 game, which is 3rd high for an individual this season. Besides Jenter, Lyle Widmayer had a 533 series for Widmayer's team and on the other team (Short's) Nelson Short led his team with a 548 series, also some help from Herb Bersuder with a 531 series.

Carl M. Schaible's team whipped Jan & Jim's Grill for 4 points. The win for Ford's was due largely to efforts by Earl Bersuder (532 series) and Duane Rolier (524 series).

The Kappler brothers were the reason that Kappler's Contractors took 3 points from Double A Products. Homer had a 551 series and Speck had a 603 series. Speck Kappler's 600 series was the 3rd one rolled in our league this year and of course, the high series of the evening. Mike Wolfe of the Double A team, had a 503 series.

The bowlers who had a 200 game or better were: Ronnie Jenter 246, Speck Kappler 243, Nelson Short 230, Elwin Benedict 203, Dewey Hartbeck 202, and Richard Widmayer 200. Although we have a new league leader in A. B. C. Service, the other marks for team scores: Mary's Tavern 1902 for high team game and Kappler's Contractors 2727 for high team series; for individual scores: Homer Kappler 632 for high individual series and Homer Kappler 252 high individual game, remained the same.

Cellophane Made 300 New Firms

The fact that it takes both big business and small business to make the jobs which keep Americans at work and maintain our constantly rising standard of living is illustrated by the story of cellophane.

The Du Pont company spent millions of dollars in the research and development, plant and equipment which brought cellophane into practical being. Today there are more than 300 companies, most of them small, which were started as a direct result, making such products as wrappers, envelopes, bags, straw, decorations and countless others.

How We Do It

Then there's the story about the two "sidewalk superintendents" who stood watching a big bulldozer at work. With each bite, it lifted great chunks of earth. "If it weren't for that scoop," one complained, "a hundred men might be working with shovels."

Terse, but true. We Americans never believe in doing anything by hand that we can get machines to help us do—thus extending our own strength and energy 20-fold, and contributing immensely to our progress, through productivity.

A scientist has announced that a jack rabbit can run 45 miles an hour—as fast as a good race horse.

TAKING IT EASY by Science Features

Relaxation in a true sense means doing absolutely nothing. This should be the easiest thing in the world, but psychologists claim that our modern hectic way of living makes relaxation very difficult.

Many people know of the need and spend evenings at home under the impression that they are relaxing. But actually they aren't, as the mind, nerves and muscles remain in constant action through thought and tension. Tension is the contraction of a muscle motivated by a nerve.

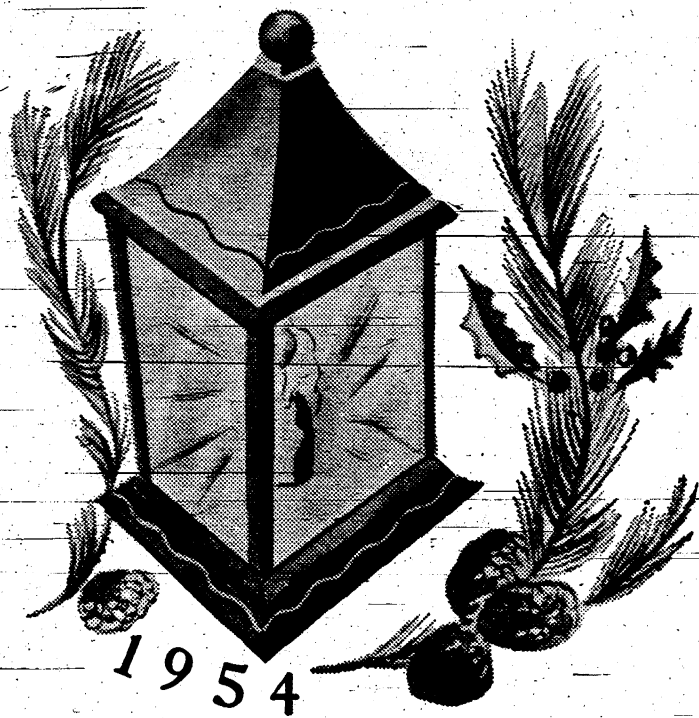

Relaxation is really the art of dropping tension.

A series of tests, conducted by Dr. Edmund Jacobson of the University of Chicago, showed that the mind can make muscles work through thoughts alone. By connecting electrical instruments to the muscles of patients who were lying down with their eyes closed, he was able to measure the activity. If told to imagine they were lifting a weight, the muscles of the patient became tense with effort. In the same manner, hate, worry and other thoughts cause activity, and spoil relaxation.

Tense people generally do more work than they have to. They are exhausted at the end of a day, not by their regular chores, but by the energy used in wasted actions.

Actually the key to relaxation is economy: don't waste power, movement or thoughts.

Float Features 100 Dozen Tulips

"Water Wonderland" will be the theme of the Michigan entry in the 1954 Tournament of Roses parade on New Year's Day. Using 200,000 live flowers and featuring 100 dozen tulips, the spectacular float will paint a floral picture of the state's industry, agriculture and vacationland.

Based on a booklet about Michigan to follow the parade theme of "Books in Flowers," the gorgeous floral presentation will be dominated at the rear of the float by two bronze Spartan statues, serving as bookends and each holding a spear flying the MSC pennant. The figures, 17 feet tall, represent the statue of "Sparty," a landmark on the Michigan State College campus.

Between the giant figures will be three enormous books in flowers, volumes separately titled "Industry," "Agriculture" and "Vacationland." These will be entirely in vari-colored chrysanthemums.

In front of the books will be seen a factory building and its wonderful opportunity for the State to almost literally stamp out tuberculosis if the case finding program is stepped up because we will be finding more and more cases of tuberculosis in its early stages when it can be more quickly cured. There is no reason at all with the new facilities in prospect, why Michigan should not be the first State in the Union to rid itself of this terrible disease.

autos, a sailboat on a Michigan lake, a barn and silo, and, sitting under a fruit tree in bloom, Michigan's Donna Mae (Dee) Means, this year's "Miss Big Ten."

Dressed in a white gown of nylon net, with bouffant skirt and seated in a glade of green maiden-hair fern to provide the green and white of her school's colors, "Dee" will be surrounded by 100 dozen red, white, yellow and lavender tulips to salute the annual Holland Tulip Festival. She will be the float's only rider.

Blossoms of the fruit tree behind her will be simulated by hundreds of sweet peas. The lake will be created by delphiniums and candytuft, while chrysanthemums will provide the remaining color for wide sweeps of yellow, red, brown and white.

The float, constructed by Floats, Inc., of El Monte, Calif., will be 20 feet wide and 40 feet long and will carry it through the line of march. The driver, invisible to parade watchers, will have a rather restricted forward view through a peephole in the "lake."

The Michigan entry will be seen by additional millions over NBC-TV at approximately 12 noon (EST) following the Michigan State band.

Inside The Capitol

John B. Martin.
One of the things that makes service in government interesting is the fact that he picture is never the same. As one problem is solved it may create another.

Three years ago the voters approved the expenditure of $5,000,000 for tuberculosis hospital construction. During the next two years all of this new hospital construction will be completed, adding nearly 500 new tuberculosis hospital beds to those now available. In addition, the veterans administration is moving to establish some 500 additional tuberculosis beds at Dearborn and Ann Arbor. Three facts are of great importance: The case finding rate has remained relatively stationary; the discharge rate for patients cured or whose disease is arrested, has increased; the death rate from tuberculosis has decreased sharply. The result is some 300 unfilled beds which will materially increase as new construction of hospitals is completed unless we step up the case finding program drastically.

We know that there are plenty of tuberculosis cases undetected because those who enter our hospitals are in an advanced stage. At the present time we spend on case finding in Michigan about $100 for each $25.00 that we spend on treatment. If we spent relatively little more on case findings we could soon materially reduce the big amounts we spend for treatment. This presents a

Mackinac Bridge

Owen J. "Pat" Cleary
Secretary of State

I have long been favorable to the building of a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac and have repeatedly asserted that position. In creating the Mackinac Bridge Authority, the Legislature seemingly established the principle of financing through the issuance of revenue bonds. In doing so they decided against pledging the full faith and credit of the State at this time. Furthermore the Republican State Convention in August 1952 adopted the following resolution:

"We favor the prompt construction of a Mackinac Straits bridge, financed by the sale of revenue bonds as authorized by the Republican Legislature and we commend their action in that regard."

To me it seems that the Administrative Board has before it a single question. Whether the proposition presented by the Authority is soundly in keeping with legislative intent. If the bids indicate that the bonds can be sold, I believe that that is the crux of the situation and I shall vote to accept the proposal. If, at sometime in the future to avail ourselves of a lower interest rate, the legislature sees fit to put the proposition to the people on a refunding basis it can well be done under the terms of the indenture which provides that the bonds are redeemable at any interest date.

This it seems to me, places with the Legislature the responsibility for submitting to the people a proposal such as Mr. Brake made Tuesday if, in their judgment, it is a proper thing to do. In any event I think that such a position is clearly a legislative prerogative and I am quite content that they exercise it if they see fit. I am sure that the Legislature in their wisdom will safeguard the interest of the people under their elective responsibilities.

I am very optimistic that the constantly growing tourist business now about to be influenced by the slogan "Water Wonderland" on 3,500,000 license plates, will reflect an increased volume of traffic year after year.

MORE ON TROUT CHANGES

The changes in trout regulations recently proposed by our Conservation Commission included a recommendation that the size limit be raised to 8 or 9 inches, depending upon certain findings of research biologists. There's good reason in back of this suggestion—more reason than there may be behind many of the other proposals for change. Hatchery raised trout numbering more than one million are planted each year as 7" fish or better, and of course none have ever spawned. With a 7" legal limit on all trout, wild and planted, it is very likely that we are taking a very large number of fish before they have reached spawning age.

Natural Reproduction Adequate, If—

We spend around a half-million dollars or more in raising and planting trout on a pretty lavish "put and take" system, and opponents of this plan say that natural reproduction alone can more than replace the annual fisherman's harvest of trout. This theory might well be more believable if we raised the size limit to the point where we allowed our native trout to spawn at least once before putting them in the creek!

Some anglers will say that the biggest percentage of their catch is the smaller fish—and that often they hook themselves so badly that it's wasteful to turn them back to die. In such a case perhaps the tackle is at fault more than the trout, and changes in that direction might be advisable on a voluntary basis.

If the size limit is raised to eight or nine inches the trout must be raised to this size in the hatcheries before release, which means "board and room" for another year, and a much higher cost per fish. Such an increase could spell the doom of planting any adult trout in the near future.

Proposed Changes Reasonable?

In summary you may ask if these proposed changes in trout laws are really necessary... and it's a good question. The elimination of "hard-ware" in trout streams has almost been accomplished without legislation simply because this heavy type of lure doesn't fit the requirements of the trout fisherman. The proposal prohibiting fishing between midnight and six o'clock in the morning affects so few fishermen that it just doesn't have much bearing on fish conservation. However, the raising of the size limit looks like good common sense and might be the BIG step in maintaining trout supply in keeping with rising demand. Think it over!

Main Street

This being the last publication of the year we wish to thank all those who have helped us during the past year. Without the help of a great many people in a small town we would be unable to bring you as good a news coverage as we can in a weekly newspaper. To mention all of your names would be impossible but we feel sure that you will know that it includes all of you—from the ones who call in only one news item a year to those who make it their business to see that the news reaches the paper as soon as it happens. To you all, thanks and a Very Happy New Year.

We were glad to hear that Mrs. Larry Pepper escaped uninjured when her car slipped down the steep, icy hill on Torrey Street and into the on-coming freight train on the Ypsilanti Branch of the New York Central. She said that she applied her brakes when the train whistled but the street had not been sanded and the car skidded into the train. Because neither were moving at a fast rate of speed, no serious damage resulted. The accident occurred about 1:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Mrs. Edwin Haessler is improving at her home from injuries in an automobile accident a week ago Sunday. She has two broken thumbs in casts and suffered other injuries to her hands, knee and cuts on her head.

The Manchester Moms want to thank all those who were so generous in making donations to the boxes for the Veterans at Fort Custer. The Moms went to the hospital on December 19 and entertained 100 patients at a Christmas party. They also distributed some Christmas boxes to shut-ins in Manchester.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Cora Merithew is confined to Foote Hospital at Jackson.
