One score and seventeen years ago our Congress brought forth upon this nation a new tax, conceived in desperation and dedicated to the proposition that we were to pay for our government. We have met on form 1040, 1028, 1029, 1030, 1031, 1032, 1033, 1034, 1035, 1036, 1037, 1038, 1039, 1040, 1041, 1042, 1043, 1044, 1045, 1046, 1047, 1048, 1049, 1050, 1051, 1052, 1053, 1054, 1055, 1056, Republican candidates in the April 6 spring election are shown above as they made plans to cover the State in a series of regional and local campaign rallies.

The Republican nominees emphasized the importance of the spring election to keep Michigan schools, courts and roads in sound hands for the benefit of all people and away from the influence of "special interest" groups.

Looking over a proposed campaign itinerary are Seated (left to right)—Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler, Lansing, candidate for reelection; former Gov. Harry P. Kelly, Detroit, candidate for Supreme Court Justice; Standing (left to right)—Arthur K. Rouse, Boyne City, candidate for State Board of Agriculture; Dr. Charles S. Kennedy, Detroit; and Otto E. Eckert, Lansing, candidate for reelection to the University of Michigan Board of Regents; and Chair Taylor Lansing, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Absent when the picture was taken were Clark L. Brady, Lansing, candidate for reelection to the State Board of Agriculture; and Walter F. Gries, Niles, candidate for State Board of Education.

To All Feed Dealers and Especially to Feed Mixers:

Dear Friend:

Would you do a big favor for three very special folks? Yourself, your poultry feed customers and us at the Saline Hatchery. You know as well as I do that any deal is only good if it is good for all involved. So here it is.

I do a lot of running around among farmers buying chicks from us to give them—service on their flocks. Sometimes I get awfully upset. We sell them the best chicks we know how to produce, they pay us good money for them and then they come to you with their home grown chicks and ask you to mix feed for them.

All of you carry one or more good brands of concentrate built especially for such mixing purpose and they will make an excellent feed provided you mix it according to the recommendations of the manufacturer. The trouble is that so many have either forgotten how much concentrate to mix with a given amount of grain or they do not realize the importance for mixing it properly and they proceed to mix your feed with ground grain and put in too little concentrate with their feed. The result is that the chicks you are doing them wrong. They will profit most from a diet too heavy with potatoes and bread.

You know I have already talked to many of you about this already and most of you admit that 90% of your customers are not using enough concentrate. But you say they will object if you call it to their attention. That is one reason I am writing you this in an open letter because I suspect that many of your customers are reading over your shoulder right now.

These farm folks are intelligent business people now days. If you just show them the formulas that you have from your company and explain to them by mixing it properly, they will see that you are doing them right. They will profit most from a diet too heavy with potatoes and bread.

Stork Visits Mother In Two Counties
Mrs. Arthur Hanewald set a new record in Manchester last Thursday, March 5th when she gave birth to her twelfth child in Washtenaw county and the other in Lenawee county.

The twins are doing nicely in an incubator at the Herick Memorial hospital after their unexpected early arrival Thursday evening. Both weighed a little over five pounds.

The boy, Allen Lee, was born about 6:30 p. m. in the Hanewald home on Schiawass road south of here, while Mrs. Hanewald's husband Art was at a neighbor's house trying to call a doctor.

Mr. Hanewald returned to find himself a father. So he bundled the infant and his 29-year-old wife, Maxine into the family car and sped off to enter them in the Tecumseh hospital. Near their destination 20 minutes later, Mrs. Hanewald gave birth to a twin girl Nancy Lee in the automobile.

The Hanewalds have one other child, 5-year-old Tonya. Art is employed at the Manchester Plant of the Ford Motor Company. Asked if there were sets of twins in either
