Manchester Second Grade Has Four Sets Of Twins

In the second grade at the Manchester Public Schools twins are not too uncommon. In national birth statistics the incidence of twins is only about 1 to 80 but here there are four sets of them among forty-six pupils.

Shown above left to right and front to back are Candace and Constance Evilsizer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Evilsizer; Maureen and Kathleen Kirk, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirk and Naomi and Noah Fitch, twins of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Fitch. Young Noah is the only boy in the group. All of the twins are seven years old—the youngest pair, Candace and Constance Evilsizer, celebrated their seventh birthday on Thursday, October 15.

Mrs. Mabel Pardee is the teacher of the group. The three sets of twins have been in the Manchester schools since they began kindergarten and this year they were joined by the Fitch children. Although the three sets were in the same grade until this year, they had not been in the same class-rooms because of divided classes.

There are two other sets of twins in the Manchester school system.

Steer Club To Get Underway Soon

At the regular meeting of the Exchange Club chairman of the steer committee, Robert Hamilton told the club that plans are underway to purchase sixteen steers this year for the sixteen members of the steer club. Working with Mr. Hamilton on the steer club committee are Tom Walton, Ed Gallaway and Earl Koebbe and three fathers of members of the Exchange Club, Erwin Buss, Roland Guenther and Harold Fisk. Mr. Hamilton indicated that purchasing of the steers will take place at an early date.

Frank Reck, chairman of the Economy Run told the group that the date of the Economy Run has been set for Sunday, November 1. Nearby towns of Jirton, Tecumseh, Brooklyn and Dexter schools will compete in the run and from the five schools five winners will be picked. Then there will be the grand sweepstakes winner from the entire area. Further plans will be announced in the next couple of weeks.

Ed Kirk, head of the program, introduced Rev. Fr. Walter Hennes, who showed very fine colored movies of a trip through the New England States to conclude the program.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Stark of Pleasant Lake announced the engagement of their daughter, Wilma Jean, to Mr. Durwood Beatty, at a family dinner on Sunday.

Miss Stark is a junior at Michigan State College where she is majoring in elementary education. Mr. Beatty is working on his masters degree at Michigan State majoring in agriculture.

Present at the dinner were Mr. Beatty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Beatty of Otter Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stark of Pittsfield Village.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Kick-Off Dinner Starts Community Fund Drive

"Where else can one give once and help so many?" asked Mayor Joe Schwab at the Kick-Off meeting for the Manchester Area Community Fund Drive Thursday night. People in every walk of life and every age are given a lift in one way or another by the united effort to raise funds for local and national civic health and welfare agencies. The various types of medical research alone have been and will continue to be an aid to each and everyone. The boost to youth groups and activities is the building of a firm foundation for our community. This was the way the Mayor summed up his opinion of the 1953-54 Community Fund Drive.

Reverend Karl Rest called the meeting of sixty volunteer workers for the Drive to order at exactly 6:30 Thursday night at the Rows Corner church meeting and kept it clicking according to a necessarily rigid schedule.

Superintendent Fred Atkinson pointed out that working together for a United Community Fund Campaign was another step in unifying the area in its purpose and action. Herbert Jacobs, newly elected member of the Community Fund Board, sent his talk to be read since he was unable to be present at the last moment. He compared the close relationship of town and country people now as contrasted with years ago. Of course, the rural families will be helping for the purpose of a United Community Fund Drive has no bounds.

Royal Davidter, president of the Exchange Club, gave a brief sketch of the local history of the Drive from its humble beginnings as a three man Youth Guidance Committee appointed eight years ago by the City Council.

Millard Uphaus, president of the Board, asked for a speedy effort on the part of the solicitors to reach their $3500 goal in the allotted two weeks—October 12 through 24.

Corrections to last week's publicity were announced. Marvin Oates was elected vice president of the board instead of Rev. Rest, who held that position last year. Mrs. Earl Alber is a member of Mrs. Alexander's village solicitation team and Mrs. William Dorrance will replace Mrs. Cannon for the Ford group.

A new team was added to Mrs. Palmer's Rural solicitation division. Mrs. Carl Settle is captain of the team of room mothers from the Pleasant Lake District school; Mrs. Gust Esch, Mrs. Otto Timmerman, Mrs. Frank Carson, Mrs. Willard Kuebler, Mrs. Walter Heiber, Mrs. Vernon Dresselhouse, Mrs. Willis Uphaus, Mrs. Krasnowetz, Mrs. Arthur Blanchard and Mrs. Walton Blumenauer. Although they have been delayed in getting organized they will cover the area in the two weeks of the drive if possible their interest is especially keen as their community will be needing special help for their youth activities in the near future.

Special Gifts Committee of business men will spark the Fund raising by announcing collections in time to have the thermometer on Main Street in action by this week-end. Solicitors from all divisions are to turn in reports Friday and Mondays and everyone is expected to make at least one report during the week.

Let's be over the "Half-way mark" by next week!

Telephone Techniques was a demonstration of new equipment and teaching materials as developed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and the Monroe High School Business Education Department.

After the luncheon at Ford Motor Company, Ypsilanti, the group was taken on a tour of Ford Motor Company offices where they learned how the offices coordinate for Ypsilanti and for their other plants located in Dundee, Waterford, Manchester, Northville, Brooklyn, Milford and Green Island, New York and what parts and equipment are manufactured by each.

A question and answer period was held after the tour followed by a movie on the work in these plants.

Along Main Street

Let us forget!—Elsewhere in the paper there is an important Notice which says that the village council orders that no leaves (or anything else for that matter) are to be burned on the streets of Manchester—either on the pavement or blacktop. Seems that the tar in the blacktop burns like oil. So let's remember that although it might seem like a logical place to burn leaves—where the fire won't spread—such a move could be very costly.

Out at the J. C. Cathey Farm on M-11 a new private telephone has been installed and the number is 4021. The same number for both the Cathey Hatchery and residence.

For the past four weeks the George Swanks and their young daughters have been living with Mrs. Swank's aunt, Mrs. Mary Galloway and son Ed, while the Swank's new home a 424 Territorial was plastered, but last Sunday the Swanks moved into their new home. Prior to the plastering the Swanks had been living in the basement while the rest of the house was being finished.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace, Sr. on the Manchester-Clinton Road, are planning to hold open house Sunday afternoon, October 18, from 2 to 4 p. m. The occasion marks their 40th wedding anniversary. Congratulations!

At the cub scout meeting on Monday plans were made to hold a school of instruction for parents of cub scouts in the very near future.

Friends here will be interested to learn that the Howard Heaths are the proud parents of a daughter born last week at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital at Ann Arbor. Little Mary Eva makes three daughters for the Heaths. Many here are well acquainted with Howard who is the commentator for radio station W. P. A. G.

Stanley Kemner, who recently returned home from service, has enrolled at Cleary College in General Business.

The Arbeiter Society has changed the date of their public card party to Saturday, October 24 at 8:00 p. m.

Those interested in an adult education class meet at the high school on Tuesday evening and, according to Sup't. Fred Atkinson, there was a very small number present. Apparently people forgot about the meeting or did not read the notice, at any rate there were not enough persons interested to start any one class. However, it was indicated that sewing, typing and ceramics seem to be the most wanted classes. Persons interested in any of these three fields are asked to contact the high school, phone 2341, stating their desire to enroll in these classes.

On next Wednesday there will be a meeting of the Citizens' Committee and the Board of Education with the architect to hear more about the plans for building a new school and discuss sites and option. This meeting will be at the high school on Wednesday at 8:30 p. m.

Many of us have been wondering what was being hauled by freight cars over the New York Central rail road here late at night—because invariably the train got stuck at the bend down in Solesville and the freight has to muster up steam enough to go up-grade. According to reliable informants, the train is hauling sugar beets from down around Blissfield to the sugar beet factory near Saginaw.

Manchester Man Wed In Angola, Indiana

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Betty Tirk of Clinton and Charles Patterson of Manchester. The service took place at Angola, Indiana, on Saturday, October 10. The couple will make their home at Clinton.

$15,000 Fire Destroys Farm Buildings

Fire early Friday swept a Sharon Township farm, destroying four buildings, bushels of corn, a quantity of wheat and oats, small tools and a car. The bigger tools, including three tractors, corn picker grain drill, mower and other articles were saved.

The blaze of undetermined origin at 19024 Pleasant Lake Rd. about two miles north of Manchester sprang up shortly after midnight and was detected by a neighbor, Clifton Greech, who was returning home from working on a midnight shift.

Apparently the fire started in the garage and swept across a narrow driveway onto a large barn, granary, and a tool house. Damage was estimated to be about $15,000 according to fire chief Lawrence Scheid.

The big barn, chicken house and house were not damaged. The Manchester and Chelsea fire departments were called but the buildings were enveloped in flames when firemen arrived.

Clarence Huesman has lived on the farm which belongs to Mrs. Wilbur Comstock for the past twenty years. He said that there were some 1,000 bushels of oats, 400 bushels of wheat and 300 bushels of corn destroyed. Also living at the farm home is Mr. Huesman's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole and their family.

Fifth & Sixth Grade Football Scores

This week Buddy England's Firetongues are still in the lead with a total of 19 touchdowns. Ronald Walters' Spartans drove forward to make a total of 11 touchdowns, which put his team in second place over Gary Hamilton's Flying Dutchmen, who had a total of 9 touchdowns. Dennis McDermott's All-

Stars still trail behind in fourth place with a total of 3 touchdowns and one touchback. This week on Friday we took an hour off at the end of the regular school day so that the boys might have a little longer in which to play. Coach Larry Soldan was referee for the game between the Firetongues and the Spartans. Mr. Rufus Gillam was referee for the All-Stars and the Flying Dutchmen. The Firetongues won their game, leading with a score of three to two. It was a very close game because the Spartans were about to make a touchdown when the game had to be called for lack of more time.

The Flying Dutchmen walked over the All-Stars by a lead of 5 to 1. The All-Stars were right in there pitching all the way. They seem to have the misfortune to have smaller boys and more inexperienced players. However, they are doing a mighty fine job and must be complimented upon their spirit. The fifth and sixth grade girls are acting as cheer leaders. They have been doing a lot of practicing at recess time. They did a fine job of cheering the boys on to victory.

The third and fourth grades were invited to be our guests. They were also cheering the boys on. Miss Ethel Brown and Miss Nellie Ackerson, teachers of these two grades reported the game was enjoyed very much by all.

Women's Bowling

Team	W	L	AV.
Schaffer's	16	4	664
Schaible	13½	6½	670
Manch. Drug	13	7	666
Lannon's	12	8	653
Manch. Bakery	8	12	619
Uphaus Drug	8	12	596
Hamilton's Mkt.	5	15	610
Widmayer's	4½	15½	653

On October 8th the women bowlers shuffled the league standings somewhat—in fact, the only teams who held the "status quo" were Schaffer's and Widmayer's. Hardware and Furniture, the "Penthouse" and "Cellar-Dwellers" respectively. Uphaus Drugs managed to get off those basement stairs and into a 5th place tie with Manchester Bakery by taking 3 points from Widmayer's. Hamilton's Market lost 4 points to Schaffer's to drop them into the 7th spot. Lannon's Variety made the mistake of tangling with Carl M. Schaible, Inc. losing 3 points and moving from 2nd to 4th in the standings. Schaible's lost no time in moving right into the 2nd floor vacancy. Manchester Drug eased into 3rd place when they took 3 points from the Bakery Five. It looks like there'll be no stopping that high-stepping Schaffer outfit! They set some new records this week by first-team three game record of 2144 of all breaking Schaible's high with a 2160. Joyce Schaffer then raised her own previous high individual 3-game score from 492 to 495 and finally tied Edna Knauss' high individual game of 199.

Phyllis Hamilton caused no little excitement by rolling 4 consecutive strikes and Ginny Fielder got a big hand for picking up a 5-9-7 split. Mary Cannon got into the act by picking up a 5-7.

No less than 12 gals had games of 165 or better, but those who went above 180 were Joyce Schaffer with her 199, Marian Fox 184, and Donn Thurman 181. Pretty good—don't you think?

Eighth Grade Hayride

Pupils of the Eighth grade of the Manchester Schools enjoyed a hayride which concluded with a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schebor where the class was treated to cider and donuts. Sponsors of the class are Mrs. Joseph Wehr and Mr. Herbert Minix with Dorretta Walter of Ypsilanti and R. Gillam as guests. Mr. Charles Schebor drove the tractor.

Winklers Entertain At Hayride

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Winkler entertained the Seventh grade at their home following a hayride when Mr. Winkler drove the tractor which hauled the wagon. Accompanying the group was the class advisor, Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. James McKeever and Mrs. Duffield Ball. Refreshments of sweet cider and doughnuts were served.

Plastic Auto Bodies Revealed

The sports car formally joined the ranks of American automobiles, today.

Before a group of technical writers, the Chevrolet Motor division put the sleek, low-slung Corvette through its paces at the General Motors Proving Ground and revealed for the first time the company's facilities for the production of revolutionary reinforced plastic bodies.

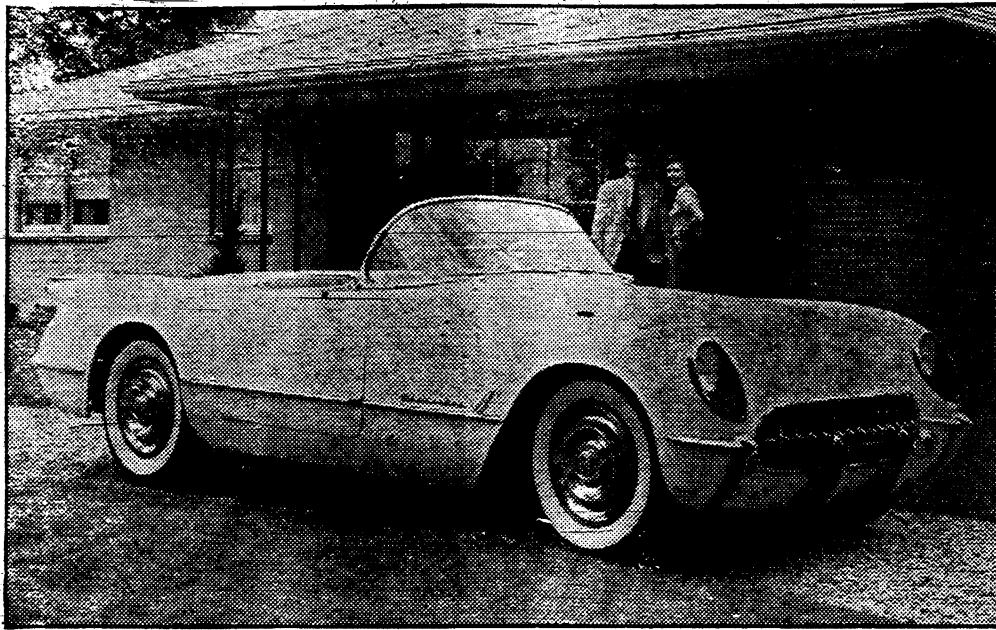

The event was a factory sponsored demonstration of the Chevrolet presented the Corvette as the first plastic-bodied automobile ever built by mass production methods. The process, explained at the showing in Detroit, involves the molding of mats of fiber glass with resinous compounds. Body parts are "cured" into panels in 61 separate molds. The parts are then bonded and riveted together to form a body shell that has the strength of steel at considerable saving in weight.

T. H. Keating, general manager of Chevrolet, analyzed the Corvette by saying that the vehicle "is not a racing car in the accepted sense that a European car is a race car."

"Rather we have built a sports car in the American tradition," he continued. "It is in-

America's First Sports Car Reaches Market

One of the most widely discussed automobiles—the Chevrolet Corvette—has been placed in distribution. A two-passenger open model (with removable top), the car is the American auto industry's first sports car and the first to carry a plastic body built by mass production methods.

Although the Corvette will be available only in limited quantities for some time, W. E. Fish, general sales manager, announced an exhibition program that will place the car on view in many smaller communities. He said eight Corvettes have been assigned to mobile units this fall on a schedule of dates in all parts of the country.

Inspection of the Corvette supports the company's claim that the car combines luxury with sports car design. The roomy two-passenger cockpit is attractively trimmed in Sportman Red and Polo White, to conform with the exterior finish. The Powerglide automatic transmission is used. Springing was especially designed for comfort. A spacious luggage locker is provided at the rear. The car is equipped for both radio and heater. Windshield washers, turn indicators, electric clock and other conveniences not commonly associated with vehicles of this type are standard equipment.

In appearance the car is fleet and compact. Chassis ground clearance is six inches and the height at the top of the door, 33 inches. Along the overall length of 167 inches the chassis has been designed so that the weight on each wheel is virtually equal. The special Chevrolet Blue Flame engine develops 150 horsepower, providing one horse power to each 19 pounds of car weight.

To obtain proper chassis balance with the low body design, engineers have incorporated several novelties. The gas tank is located behind the driver's seat. An auxiliary water tank lies along the hood. Rear springs are mounted outside the box-section frame designed for ruggedness and stability. Other unusual features include triple carburetion and dual exhaust and manifold.

According to the booklet, "Mental Health and M S," the multiple sclerosis patient need never think of himself as being "in the grip of uncontrollable forces which are going to introduce personality changes and deprive him of his inalienable right to be an individual or a personality."

However, the booklet explains, certain specific psychological problems peculiar to M S arise. These include: (1) difficult adjustment due to the wide range and variability of symptoms; (2) the uncertainties of the disease; (3) the doctor-patient relationship in a disease where there is no known cure; (4) loss of control in certain physical and psychological areas.

Explanation and guidance is given on how to cope with these difficulties. The booklet resulted from studies of hundreds of patients. Psychological tests on multiple sclerosis patients showed that there are no indications of unusual mental disturbances or intellectual impairment. Tests upon request to the Michigan Sclerosis Society, 1420 St. Antoine, Detroit 26, or from the Chapter, National Multiple Sclerosis Society, 474 Hollister Bldg., Lansing 8. A second mental health booklet, for the use of physicians, will be published in the near future.

The man who won't act his age often is married to a woman who won't tell hers.—Grit, Williamsport, Pa.

The booklet is available free to multiple sclerosis patients.

THOROUGH. DISCING with Ease

THAT'S THE STORY OF THE NEW ALLIS-CHALMERS MOUNTED DISC HARROWS FOR CA, WD OR WD-45 TRACTORS

Here is a disc harrow with weight and ruggedness for a complete job of discing. The flexible frame allows each gang to follow contours and uneven ground. At the same time, the gangs are kept in perfect alignment... without gouging or dodging.

The touch of a lever raises the entire harrow... making it easy to transport over roads and grassed waterways.

And now, for the first time, you get exclusive, precision-built BAL-PAK gang bearings that never need greasing. They are lubricated and sealed for life.

Let us demonstrate this new mounted disc harrow. You'll agree it's the easiest-handling harrow you've ever used.

BAL-PAK is an Allis-Chalmers trademark.

Psychiatrist Hits Kinsey Report

By Elwood Kieser
Washington, D. C.—A psychiatrist here termed the Kinsey report "questionable" and "misleading."

In an article written for the N. C. W. C. News Service, Dr. Robert P. Odenwald, practicing Washington psychiatrist and prominent author on sex education, stated, "the report will be entirely misleading and harmful in its emphasis upon the usualness of extra-marital relations." It implies that statistics make morality, that what many do is therefore morally right.

A LARGE PORTION of our population suffers from cancer, but we do not say that it is therefore natural or desirable. Because a portion of America's women fail in matters of purity, this failure does not make their impurity morally right. Right is right if no one is right. Wrong is wrong if everyone is wrong. Sexual infidelities—debate the human person, pervert his noblest desires, wreck havoc with both soul and body.

Said Dr. Odenwald, "The God-given value of sex cannot be separated from the material aspects of sex behavior, as Dr. Kinsey has done." The sacredness of sex is lost in a maze of statistics. Sex, like everything natural, is good if used according to its purpose. Its purpose is to allow a husband and wife—and only them—to cooperate with God in bringing children into the world. Sex is among the holiest of human privileges. But its use outside marriage is a selfish mockery of a noble and sacred action.

DR. ODENWALD, like many scientists, also attacked the value of Dr. Kinsey's statistics, calling them "far from convincing or scientifically proved." Of America's 80 million women, Dr. Kinsey interviewed only 6,000. And these 6,000 were hardly representative of America's women. Women with strong religious convictions were not proportionately represented. Dr. Kinsey admits these shortcomings, but the average reader does not consider them. We can hardly judge America's 80 million women on the basis of a non-representative sampling of 6,000.

DESPITE ITS shortcomings, Dr. Kinsey's report has one value. It reminds us that we must restore God and His Law to our lives.

HARVEST BREAKFAST

A buckwheat festival in Bruce-ton Mills, West Virginia, celebrates a good harvest.

It's a sign that cool fall weather is here. Now buckwheat cake batter made with yeast may be kept from day to day to be used as a starter.

Whole pigs, even the hams, are made into fresh, well-seasoned sausage. The cakes are drenched in maple syrup and there is lots of good hot coffee. Folks gather from miles around to join in the celebration.

Buckwheat Mix

The same mouth-watering combination can easily be served at your own breakfast table. The buckwheat pancake mix, ready-to-use as it comes from the store, is equally good and simpler to prepare.

For thin cakes, typical West Virginia style, add just a little more milk or water to the batter.

Pigs 'n' Cakes

Place fresh pork sausage links in a pan and add enough water to cover the bottom of the pan. Cover and simmer ten to fifteen minutes; remove the cover and allow to brown slightly.

Bake the pancakes on a lightly greased griddle. Roll two crispy browned sausages in each buckwheat cake. Serve two pancakes rolls to each person along with the maple syrup and coffee.

Fresh Oranges

Fresh, juicy oranges cut in cubes or sliced are especially good with this rich breakfast menu.

Is he in business "to stay?"

When you buy a used car from a Ford Dealer, you're dealing with an established businessman who has a large investment and his good name at stake. We're here today, and we'll be here tomorrow!

Does he really know cars?

Ford Dealers are in the service business, too; work with cars day in and day out. We know how to spot trouble fast. And, our expert Ford mechanics have the equipment and "know-how" to handle any service job.

Are his prices really fair?

Ford Dealers handle used cars and trucks as a service to customers who trade them for new ones. We get a lot of trade-ins. And we keep these used cars moving to free our working capital. That's one reason why we offer our used cars and trucks at rock-bottom prices.

Is he interested in you?

Remember—we Ford Dealers want to keep your good will because someday we hope to sell you a new car, or another used car, and we want your service business. It's just plain good business for us to play square with you.

Do his cars meet A-1 standards?

When you go to a Ford Dealer's and see the A-1 label on a car, you know it has met with the dealer's A-1 standards. And because you can trust the man you bought it from, you can trust the car.

IT'S WHERE YOU BUY IT THAT COUNTS!

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Two sheets used to cover wall, floor, and table make an excellent setting for a picture of a black cat that prowled on Halloween.

When Witches Ride and Ghosts Walk ... It's Time to Take Pictures

COMING along right soon now is one of the biggest holidays in the year for the children. No, we don't mean Christmas, although that is not too far away, but we mean the night when the hobgoblins are abroad and ghosts and witches have their innings ... the good old night of Halloween.

We thought we'd mention it in advance so you can have enough film and flashbulbs on hand for the trick or treaters, along with the usual assortment of cookies and candy.

The films and flashbulbs are for you ... and I'd advise you to use them on the youngsters who stop at your door in their costumes. You will have a gallery of snaps that will bring down the house and, if you know who the children are, their parents, I know, would like to have extra prints made from your negatives.

I have one friend who sets up a regular studio in his home every year, complete with lights and everything, to make photographs of the small fry when they knock on his door and say "tricks or treats." His collection of pictures is really charming and some of the youngsters are cute as punch—and even cuter.

Of course, you do not have to set up a studio, just choose a relatively plain wall, or hang up a blanket for a background and use your flash camera. Get the children to pose for you by appealing to their imaginations; have them act out what they are supposed to be. A six-year-old pirate can be quite ferocious or mayhap it will turn out to be a ten-year-old ghost that you have before your camera. Whatever you do, don't just have them stand stiff and stark with the "I'm having my picture taken" look. Perhaps the six-year-old pirate can be shooting his cereal-top ray gun at the ghost.

If you want to be sure of a steady stream of visitors, just pass the word around that you will give a prize for the best costume—you'll have plenty of contestants—

Local Man Presides At Conference

Dr. Lloyd E. Brownell, director of the atomic radiation laboratory of the University of Michigan, was the featured speaker for the Michigan Milk Producers Association fall conference for District 2, including Wayne, Monroe, Lenawee, Washtenaw, and Livingston Counties; also South Lyon and Farmington Locals of Oakland County, was held in Ann Arbor at the Pittsfield Grange Hall on the Ann Arbor Saline Road, Wednesday evening, October 7, 1953, at 8 o'clock.

New developments in sterilization of foods by atomic radiation were explained by Dr. Brownell, who implemented his talk with both moving pictures and slide films. Of special interest to the dairymen was his presentation of the results of experiments in preserving milk by atomic radiation and its possibility of replacing pasteurization in the future.

Ernest Girbach, sales committee member of Washtenaw County, presided at the meeting, and reports were made to the members by Andrew Jackson of Howell on the state advertising program; H. F. Simmons, secretary-manager of the Michigan Milk Producers Association, on the operating department; and Karl Geiger of Ann Arbor on the redistricting of the territories of directors.

All association members in the area were included in the conference as well as their wives, friends and neighbors. A social hour, at which refreshments were served, followed the business session.

DEATH BY GUNFIRE

Safety experts are predicting that from 20 to 30 people will die violently from gun accidents in Michigan this year—unless past performance has taught us to be more careful.

This reporter has no intention of charging that hunting is a dangerous sport. Insurance analysts and safety experts too, will admit you're probably safer hunting than you would be driving your car! Yet death by gunfire has a way of making headlines and thereby magnifying the hazard.

Automobile accidents may result from so many complications of fate that causes are often most involved. That's why they're hard to prevent. But a hunting accident is relatively simple: Somebody gets hit with the shot because (1) the gun was accidentally discharged, or (2) the trigger was pulled deliberately.

Simplifying Gun Safety

The latter cause is so easy to erase theoretically: "Always be sure of your target." Yet "snap-shooters" continue to invade the woods. They go hunting with the firm belief that they're going to get a deer, pheasant, grouse, rabbit or other game. Anything that moves is bound to be that target. So they pull the trigger. It's fixation. Only the awful shock of having struck a fellow hunter can cure such people—or some grim method of subjecting this shock vicariously to others through grisly publicity.

Happily this type of hunter is disappearing slowly but surely. Safety education in sportsmen's clubs, schools, newspapers, and by radio and television is paying off. But the statistics involving "accidental discharge" may remain pretty alarming.

In this reporter's book the worst offender in the anti-safety league is the hunter who roams the woods with the gun safety in "OFF" position, his finger on the trigger while he's walking—or even running! Accidental discharge can happen, at any moment—and if a fellow hunter is in the way, his blood is on your hands.

No Time Saved

Hunting with the safety "OFF" doesn't save you a split second in shooting, and you can prove it to yourself. Walk with your gun cradled or carried in normal position. Your hand should be partially covering the trigger guard. The safety is "ON." Now pretend your game target appears suddenly. As you swing the gun to the shoulder your finger flicks the safety "OFF," slides over the trigger and you're ready to pull just as quickly as your sights are on the target. No time lost—and maybe a life saved. Practice safety with your gun. Help cut those hunting accidents in Michigan Outdoors!

Modern Art Takes a Licking!

Did you know we had a real artist in town? Yes sir! Handy Jackson was a contributor to the Sculpture Exhibition at the Centerville Fair last week.

His work was streaky pink and curved all around—sort of streamlined. Caused quite a stir. Nobody was sure what it was supposed to represent, but some liked it and thought it was good art. Handy gave me the lowdown:

"Why, it was nothing but a piece of cattle salt our cows have been lickin' at for months. I just had it mounted. Fooled a lot of folks—one fellow even wanted to buy it!"

From where I sit, Handy's "modern art" just shows how some people can be led astray. Some even get to be "experts"—especially about the other fellow's business. Whether it's art or music, or a simple thing like choosing, say, beer or milk with a snack, we should live and let live. There's no call for either of us to set ourselves up as a "model" for the other!

Most-liked low-priced car

... among people who want more for their money

when they buy ... and more money when they sell!

There's a big reason why more folks are buying more Fords than ever before. No other low-priced car offers so many of the things people want and need for today's driving. In fact, to get such "Worth More" Ford features as a V-8 engine, completely automatic transmission and fine-car power steering in any other car, you'd have to step well up from the low-price field.

Of course, Ford owners will discover that Ford's worth more when they sell it, too. Surveys of used car prices show year-old Fords returning a higher proportion of their original cost than any other car.

because it's most like high-priced cars

... more and more people are considering Ford as the one fine car in the low-price field!

It's hard to believe that a car which is built like the finest still sells in the low-price field. Yet a Ford with its hulltight Crestmark body, its Full-Circle Visibility (most in its field), its new fine car ride and roomy luggage locker (roomiest in its field) delivers at a figure that keeps it right down in its price class.

Ford's the only low-priced car which offers you a choice of a completely automatic transmission (Fordomatic), Overdrive or Conventional Drive. And Ford Master-Guide, available on all V-8 models, is the last word in power steering ... makes turning up to 75% easier, yet retains the natural feel of the wheel on the straightaway.

See ... Value Check ... Test Drive the Ford of your choice at your Ford Dealer's. Find out why Ford is America's "Worth More" car.

FORD

Ford's V-8 is the same type of engine powering America's finest (and costliest) cars. And Ford's Mileage Maker Six is the most modern Six in the industry.

Knowledge is Power

(1) If you plan to buy one, take the advice of architect John Callender. It is usually expensive to remodel an old house. Frequently people invest more money in an old house than it would cost to build a good new one in the first place. There are special reasons which justify buying an old house. If you have four or five children to provide for, an old house is an economical way to get necessary bedroom space at a reasonable cost. Old houses are usually closer to the center of town than new ones, and this may be an advantage to you in your business.

In his book, "Before You Buy a House," Callender suggests that you watch out for rooms which can be reached only by going through another. If most of the neighbors are old people, the future of the neighborhood is doubtful.

(2) There's a reason. In fact, there are several reasons, say Jane Whitbread and Vivian Cadden. Their Redbook magazine article points out that from the time they are boys, men are trained not to show emotion. Boys are not supposed to complain or be tattletales. Most men don't think that talking solves a problem. A wife can solve the problem of the silent husband by encouraging him to express himself more freely. Women frequently forget that part of listening is simply waiting to hear. Many women give their husbands a welcoming 15-minute monologue. His private reaction is: "That's plenty of talk for the evening." Many wives complain that husbands show little interest in discussing their children. Men comment that their wives talk so much about the details of child rearing that it convinces the husbands that no stone has been left unturned in the upbringing of their children.

(3) If you don't, you're missing something special, reports Gourmet magazine. To a Russian, a Pole, Hungarian or Rumanian, sour cream is a beloved ingredient of daily eating. In baking, for example, sour cream makes a more moist, lighter cake than does ordinary milk; it produces wonderfully rich pie crusts. It makes a superb dip for raw vegetables. It floats pleasantly on soups, both cold and hot. It pairs off gracefully with meats and fowl, it insinuates itself into salads, and becomes an integral part of any number of desserts.

Moved by Scheid and supported by Alexander that we adjourn. Carried.
