Fire Department Asks Cooperation

The Manchester Fire Department has been informed by Mrs. F. J. Kirk, who so efficiently handles the Fire and Police calls in this vicinity, that there has been some misuse of the emergency phone.

It is the desire of the fire department that residents of this area be informed that the telephone number 8-3111 is for Fire and Police calls ONLY.

For the information of everyone, let's be reminded that following each fire call Mrs. Kirk's personal phone is busy as she is requested by the fire department to call each member of the fire department. This takes approximately one-half hour. It is necessary for her to use her own phone rather than the fire phone because that phone must be left open for emergency calls. The local fire department feels certain that everyone in the community will be only too glad to cooperate when they realize how the system works. They ask that everyone refrain from calling Mrs. Kirk on her private phone 8-5461, for at least one-half hour—so that she can complete her calls as speedily as possible.

To help memorize the new emergency phone number, the fire department suggests that a strip of adhesive tape be used to print the number 8-311 and stick the tape on the base of the phone. Scotch tape over plain paper will also do the trick. These can be replaced if they become soiled and will in no way deface the phone. The local fire department takes this opportunity to thank everyone for their cooperation during the past year.

Livestock Truck Wrecked In Saline

Douglas Hunt, 35, Detroit truck driver, is still in critical condition in University Hospital from injuries suffered when his livestock truck jumped the highway and plunged over a steep bank, on U. S. 112 just west of the Saline river bridge. The accident occurred Wednesday, November 25.

The truck, which was loaded with pigs, was traveling East. It hit a utility pole a glancing blow, then skidded down an embankment into a deep gully alongside the millpond. The truck smashed into a 10 inch pine tree, snapping it off at the ground. The truck's cab was completely demolished, and it took rescuers half an hour to get Douglas out of the cab.

Douglas suffered fractures of the lower jaw and skull, a broken arm and one finger on his left hand was severed and the others badly mangled.

Twenty-five of the pigs were killed and the other one hundred scattered but were later rounded up. The truck was owned by Hammond and Standish Co. of Detroit.

This is the third serious accident caused by excessive speed in Saline since October 24. Police Chief Love stated that the police department was going to do all it could to curtail speeding in the city.

Fireplace Forms Background For Wedding Picture

Mrs. Herbert W. Johnson nee, Elizabeth Mary Taft

Elizabeth Mary Taft and Herbert William Johnson spoke their wedding vows at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Taft of Hillsdale, at four o'clock Saturday, November 28. The fireplace decorated with lighted candelabra, palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums, formed the background for the double ring ceremony, which was read by Rev. Glenn Ogden of the Presbyterian church of Hillsdale.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson of Manchester.

For her wedding the bride chose a champagne colored silk tulle costume suit with a lace trimmed bodice accented by pearl accessories, and she carried a bouquet of French mum centered with an orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Steele of Manchester, sister of the bridegroom. She was attired in aqua silk tulle, a dress which featured a bolero trimmed with pearls. Her flowers were rubrum lilies.

Richard Widmayer of Manchester was best man.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the recreation room at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Addie O'Meara of Hillsdale and Mrs. Harold Stark of Buchanan served the wedding cake.

After a wedding trip through the south, the couple will be at home after December 14th at Manchester, Michigan.

The bride is a graduate of McKenzie High School, Detroit, and attended Hillsdale College where she was affiliated with Chi Omega Sorority. She is employed as a secretary in a social agency in Jackson.

The bridegroom graduated from Manchester high school and is employed on his father's farm near Manchester, at 15442 Herman Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kress and Johnny spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brooks.

The Manchester High School Band will present their annual Christmas Concert next Wednesday evening, December 9, at 8:15 in the Civic Auditorium. Every effort has been made to make the program interesting to everyone. The concert has been arranged and will be directed by Mr. Sortor, teacher of music in the Manchester Schools.

The program will open with an early chorale written by an unknown composer in 1644. This will be followed by a minuet and a gigue, both popular dance forms during the life of the composer, George Frederick Handel, who lived from 1685 to 1859. The program will continue with "Appalachian Suite," arranged by John Kinyon. This suite consists of 3 mountain tunes: Barbara Allen, Lillytoddum, and Green Sleeves. Barbara Allen was originally a Scotch folk tune, and Green Sleeves was an early English popular song. They are all popular today with the Southern Mountain Folk. This suite will be followed by an Overture called Mr. Scott which reflects the restfulness and beauty of a peak by that name in southwestern Oklahoma near the home of the composer, Earl D. Irons. Meacham's ever popular American Patrol, Golden Sunset, a reverie by Finner, and Hall of Fame, a concert march by Olivadoti, will conclude the first part of the program.

Following the intermission, the band will open the second part of the program with a march followed by three popular tunes of today, Vaya Con Dios, P. S. I Love You, and Pretend. They will conclude with traditional Christmas music; a selection of French Carols; a selection of English Carols and a concert paraphrase of Adeste Fidelis.

President Gets New Telephone

The President of the United States has a new telephone—complete with presidential seal, gold dial and numerals, and 48 stars for the states.

The new instrument was presented at ceremonies in Washington last week (Nov. 18) to President Eisenhower as head of the first nation to achieve a record of 50-million telephones in service.

Speaking at a dinner commemorating the event, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield observed that the structure of liberty is based on free communication of thoughts and ideas.

"Wherever men are free to exchange uncensored ideas," he said, "there can be found progress under freedom through which a republic such as ours has been built and is maintained."

Among those from Michigan present at the dinner were Clifton W. Phalen, president of the Michigan

Bell Telephone Company, and F. E. Norris, president of the General Telephone Company of Michigan.

The nation achieved 50-million telephones in the same year the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is celebrating the 75th anniversary of exchange telephone service in this state.

Michigan Bell has had a leading part in the national growth to 50-million telephones.

From a beginning in 1878 when the first switchboard was installed in Michigan with 53 telephones, the number served by Michigan Bell increased to more than 1,035,000 in 1942 and 2,100,000 in 1953.

Today nine out of ten urban Michigan families have telephone service compared with six out of ten in 1946. Eight out of ten rural families have telephones compared with five out of ten in 1946.

Michigan Bell has added 80,000 telephones in rural areas alone since 1945.

Men's Bowling News

Rolly Grossman, Reporter
The league positions remained about the same this week in the Manchester Businessmen's League.

Mary's Tavern continued in first place by getting 3 points. K & W Farm Supply hung onto 2nd spot by taking 3 points, as did A B C Service to remain in 3rd spot, although the Service team has bowled 3 less games. Mary's Tavern gathered 3 out of 4 points from Jan & Jim's Grill but none of the bowlers had very big series. K & W Farm Supply took 3 out of 4 points from Widmayer Sales & Service with some hefty help from Al Simmons who had a 579 series, which was high for the night. Jerry Bower (528 series) and Bill Kroske (509 series) for the Farm Suppliers and Mike Doney (519 series) for Widmayer's cracked the 500 series mark. Dewey Hartbeck with a 552 series and LeRoy Larx with a 512 series for A B C Service went a long way to help the Service men to grab 3 points from Spike's Mobil Service although Orrie Walcutt, Jr., for Spike's had a 501 series. Kappler's Contractors closed in on the 3 leaders by taking all 4 points from Carl M. Schaible's Ford team. Homer Kappler (562), Speck Kappler (539) and Art Golas lead the way for the Contractors. Mann's Millers remained in the losing rut they've been in by dropping 3 points to Short's Electric team. Ralph Wurster for Short's had a good night with a 573 series, which was 2nd high series for the night. Klager's Hatcheries took the measure of the cellar dwelling Double A Products team by getting all 4 points. Jack Weir (515 series) and Paul Widmayer (558 series) for the Hatcheries were the big guns in this match. The bowlers who threw 200 games or better were Paul Widmayer (237), Ralph Wurster (233), Homer Kappler (214), Al Simmons (216), Dewey Hartbeck (212), and Jack Weir (210).

The individual high game and high series was still held by Homer Kappler with a 252 game and a 632 series. The high tea series is Kappler's Contractors (2727) and Mary's Tavern has high team game (1002).

High individual three games, L. Trent 543.

After our last bowling session one decision was reached by all concerned—Manchester Bakery is the team to watch! They're letting nothing stop their steady advance in the league standings, not even 1st place Lannom's Variety. The girls from the 5 & 10 didn't lose their commanding lead in the standings but they looked mighty sad after losing 3 points to those "Pretzel Benders."

That poor Widmayer Hardware and Furniture tea mwas pounded down firmly into seventh place again by losing 4 to strong 2nd place Schaffer Lumber Co.

Speaking of who needs sympathy, Carl M. Schaible, Inc., could use a little. Their star really fell when they lost 3 points to Manchester Drug—from 2nd to 5th place in one night! Wow!

Uphaus Drug thought they had finally found a team they could beat but then the best they could do was to eek out 3 points from Hamilton's Market.

Three girls from the Bakery team had games over 165. Birdella Flood had a 187, Ann Pniewski a 175, and Lucille Trent a 169.

Birdella also had 2 "turkeys" to her credit while teammate Pniewski had 1 "turkey" and 2 "doubles." Lucille Trent also rolled a "double."

We were happy to see our League President, Lena Riedel was able to be back bowling with Lannom's Variety and she celebrated her return by turning in games of 172 and 167 plus a "double." Larx's Georgia Rager also got a "double."

Jean England sparked the Manchester Drug attack with a 180 game.

Ica Schaffer of the Lumber Co. crew, and substitute bowler Shirley Roller had games of 167.

Three members of Widmayer's group rolled "doubles." Edna Diferender and Frances Bersuder got 1 apiece and Maxine Widmayer had two.

Uphaus Drug's Mary Cannon

has a habit of picking up splits. Her latest achievements were a 6-7 and a 5-7. We hope she keeps it up.

BOWLING

All the teams in the league were on hand last week but seven of them might as well have stayed home because the Manchester Bakery five came away with all the chips!

First of all they elevated themselves to 4th place in the standings by taking 3 points from 2nd place Schaffer Lumber Co. in spite of the performance turned in by Joyce and Ica Schaffer. Joyce had 2 games over the 165 mark—171 & 167; a "double" and a "turkey" while Ica collected a "double" Then they (Bakery) started breaking records, most of which were held previously by Lannom's Variety. A new high team single game score was established at 822 and from that point on the fire was stoked by Lucille Trent. She took over the high individual single game crown with a 221 and the high individual three game honors with a 543; but—that's not all, she had 4 straight strikes in 2 of her games! Oh yes, one thing we forgot—"lucky Lucy" also had a 183 game! Two other Bakery Gals, Ann Pniewski, and Birdella Flood, helped out with single game scores of 169 and 165 respectively. Both girls rolled doubles and Ann had a turkey.

Lannom's Variety might have lost their grip on some of the records but they maintained their league-leading status by taking 3 points from Widmayer's Hardware and Furniture and they still hold the high team 3 game honors with 2205. Both Georgia Roger and Margaret Klager of the Lannom group had games of 168 and a double. Widmayer's captain, Edna Diferender led her team with a 166 game and a double.

Carl M. Schaible, Inc. and Uphaus Drug both took a step up in the standings in spite of the fact that they split 4 points between them. Schaibles took over second place vacancy created when Schaffer's stepped down to 3rd and the Uphaus five find themselves in a 6th place tie with Widmayer's. Schaible's Edna Knauss rolled a 184 game while the stars of the opposing team were Virginia Fielder, who had a 171 game and a double and Mary Cannon who picked up a 7-5-9 split.

Hamilton's Market retained their position as "Low man on the totem pole" but they let it be known that they don't intend to stay there by splitting 4 points with Manchester Drug who dropped from 4th to 5th in the standings. Helen Welsh led Hamilton's with a 168 game.

Next time the other 7 teams will try to put out the Bakery's fire and set some new records of their own.

Your Indispensable Servant

Six or seven times a day a new unit is added to the American railroads' locomotive fleet.

And every six minutes (as in October) of every hour of the 24 in the day the railroads put a new freight car to work on their tracks.

And yearly they relay enough rail and ties to build an entire trans-continental rail system—a system containing every new technological improvement adaptable to railroad operation.

Why all this? So that they can continue to be the one and only form of transportation in America that can and does haul anything, for anybody, in any quantity, anywhere, in any season of the year.

The railroads are America's—and your—most nearly indispensable economic servant.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
from the Bible
...for all that are in authority, that they may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. (1 Timothy 2, 2.)

Thus did the Apostle Paul exhort us to pray—for the elected authorities who determine the policies and acts of government of our beloved land. Prayer for our own individual salvation, while essential, is not enough. Our leaders must be steadfast in the Lord, through their prayers and ours, if we are to survive as a nation.

Pvt. John Curtiss who has been stationed at Fort Knox, Ky., visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schwab on Monday evening, before leaving for Camp Stoneman, Calif., for overseas duty.

NL In P O

There's a new kind of alphabetical combination in Washington these days. The letters in the caption above stand for the "new look in the Post Office."

Historically, the Post Office Department has been a major headache of every Administration. Ponderous, inefficient and expensive, the Department has suffered for many years from maladministration at virtually every level.

By the very nature of its operation—providing the public and business with service below cost—the Post Office is and has been a losing proposition.

Postmasters General have been notorious for their failure to meet the challenge of this red-ink operation. It has remained for a self-made businessman with plenty of imagination to accept the challenge and go to work. Arthur E. Summerfield, who built his automobile agency into one of the nation's largest, is demonstrating his belief that there is more to the job of Postmaster General than mere chairwarming and complacency.

Why, he argued, couldn't there be better mail service at lower cost? Why couldn't the ever-present deficit be cut drastically? And what was to prevent the introduction of efficiency to a Department long noted for its slipshod operations?

When he found that collections, not deliveries, were slowing up the Postal service by as much as 24 hours, Summerfield instituted new pick-up schedules in 212 major cities.

When he learned that many rural residents had no mail delivery service and were forced to drive up to 10 miles for their mail he extended and consolidated rural routes and eliminated unnecessary fourth-class Post Offices.

When he discovered that Post Office hours accommodated most everyone but the public, the Postmaster General extended the hours of window service wherever possible so that patrons could mail their letters and packages after working hours.

That was only the beginning. After little more than 10 months under new management, the Post Office has developed more than 100 short haul truck routes to speed up deliveries. It is negotiating with the railroads now to change schedules so that the mail can reach terminals at times that will insure earlier home deliveries. Today more mail is being sorted enroute in railway mail cars so that there will be speedier handling at terminals. The Department has substituted bulk for individual weighing of air mail, a move which cuts down paper work and speeds delivery. Another time-saver is permission to the air lines and speeds delivery. Another time-saver is permission to the air lines to transfer mail on airport ramps rather than transporting it to Post Offices.

The Department is experimenting with the movement of mail trailers on railroad flat cars to speed up the handling of mail at arrival and departure terminals. Some regular mail between Washington and Chicago, and New York and Chicago, in both directions, is now being handled by air. If this pilot operation is successful, it will be tried out on a nationwide basis.

Post Office accounting procedures are being modernized and streamlined so that the Postmaster General can have up-to-date records on his disk every 30 days. His predecessors had to wait many months for such information.

There is good news for us taxpayers in all these moves. By adjusting certain rates and transferring charges for airline subsidies and penalty mail costs to their originating branches of Government, Summerfield has reduced the estimated Postal deficit for this year from $746 million to an estimated $440 million.

That means a saving of $1,000,000 every working day in the year. Let's hope it really works.—ED.

for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. —(1 Timothy 2, 2.)

Thus did the Apostle Paul exhort us to pray—for the elected authorities who determine the policies and acts of government of our beloved land. Prayer for our own individual salvation, while essential, is not enough. Our leaders must be steadfast in the Lord, through their prayers and ours, if we are to survive as a nation.

"The Robe" CinemaScope, Now Showing

"The Robe" in CinemaScope, already hailed as a milestone in motion picture history, is scheduled to have its first opening in this area, at the Michigan Theatre, Jackson, on Wednesday, Dec. 9. The recent world premiere at the Roxy Theatre, New York, elicited the most extraordinary attention ever paid a movie since the advent of sound, accountable both to the subject "The Robe" and the introduction of the new revolutionary process, CinemaScope. The new medium utilizes an anamorphic lens, stereophonic sound and the new Miracle Mirror screen to achieve vast dimension, lifelike depth and hitherto unknown brilliance. Without being required to wear glasses, the viewer is said to be engulfed by the picture he witnesses, in CinemaScope.

The selection of "The Robe," surely on the most eagerly awaited properties in filmdom's history, as the initial project for CinemaScope, was the master stroke of 20th Century-Fox and the film's producer, Frank Ross. Mr. Ross has cherished the aspiration of bringing "The Robe" to the screen ever since he purchased the film rights from the author of the widely-read novel, the late Lloyd C. Douglas, after reading the galley proofs some 12 years ago.

Nothing was spared in making the transition from the printed page. Expending some $5,000,000 in the doing, Mr. Ross employed four stars, twenty featured players and thousands of extras. 81 monumental sets, of which only 10 are interiors, had to be built, technically as faithful to the facts divulged by long research, as accuracy could make them. Reproduced in Technicolor were whole sections of Rome and the Holy Land depicted in the film. "The Robe" is the story of what happened to the cloak Christ wore at the Crucifixion.

Equally painstaking care governed the selection of players for "The Robe." The producer—and the director, Henry Koster, make certain that their offering was peopled with the finest English speaking talent from both sides of the Atlantic. Richard Burton, the brilliant young Britisher, plays Marcellus, Tribune to the Emperor. Opposite him, as Diana, the Emperor's ward, is Jean Simmons. Victor Mature is seen as Demetrius, the Greek slave bonded to Marcellus and instrumental in the latter's conversion to the faith. The picture's fourth star is Michael Rennie, who appears as Simon of Gallilee, known as Peter, the big fisherman. Other important roles are played by Dean Jagger, as Justus, a disciple, and Jay Robinson, as the Sadistic Caligula. There are thousands of supporting players.

HIGH STANDARDS IN CHEMISTRY
by Science Features

One of the major problems facing scientists who search for new chemical weapons against disease is to find drugs which will be harmful to disease organisms—but harmless to the human body.

To maintain these high standards, every drug is thoroughly tested in the laboratory before being released for use in humans. It must not cause any harmful "side-effects," even when given for a prolonged period of time and in doses sufficient to combat the germs.

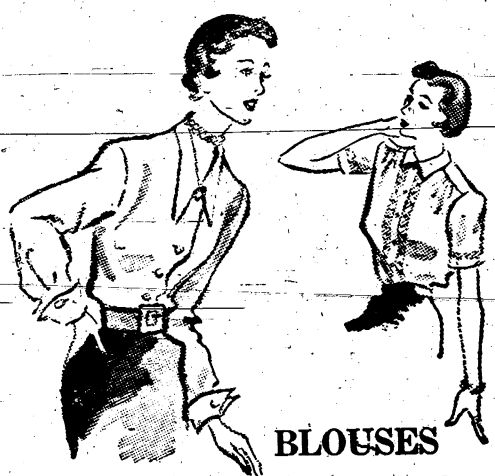

One indication of how successful such efforts have been was shown in a recent report by two Army physicians who treated 70 tuberculosis patients with massive doses of terramycin for four months. The patients were given five grams of the antibiotic daily, instead of the usual one gram dose.

Reporting on the patients' response to the treatment, the physicians said that none of the patients had to have the drug discontinued during the four months—and noted that such heavy doses of terramycin had scarcely ever before been given for so long a period.

In cases where mild stomach upsets were noted, these reactions were checked by giving the drug with meals, with cream, or with corn syrup, the doctors said.
