Porch Lights On at 7 For Dimes Climax; $1,100 Still Needed

The mothers of Manchester will march tonight!

Promptly at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Erwin Huber and her committeefor the Mothers' March on Polio will start ringing doorbells, to the accompanying peeling of church bells, as the March of Dimes campaign reaches its climax here.

With nearly $1.100 still needeed to equal last year's record total of $1.300.71, all householders are urged to have their porch lights lift at 7 p.m. so the mothers can bring in the necessary funds to help surpars that figure.

Meanwhile, Police Chief Charles Schebor urged all would-be donors to check the names listed below before the Mothers' March starts and be sure any solicitor is an authorized Mothers March reprepresentative. He said there had been reports in the past week of 15 imposters making polio solicita-

In any foreign language being It will be the work of the committee to scout around and see if there is enough interest in this field to warrent teaching a foreign language. There will be a study of what subjects can best be taught realitive to the Farm Shopwhat subjects best suit the needs of Manchester graduates.

Many other problems concerning studies, the definite needs of students, their relation to this community will be cooked into These are a few of the problems to be given a complete and careful survey.
