FIVE ESCAPE DEATH

JURORS DRAWN

A panel of 60 prospective jurors from Washtenaw county has been drawn by a jury commission for the October term of circuit court.

Included in the panel are Marguerite Burke and Mary Kirk both of Manchester township; Hulda Feldkamp, Erna Meyer and Ella Schuman all of Sharon township and Elmer Haab and Marilyn Niehaus both of Freedom township. Also on the panel are Orville Bohnenstiel, Mrs. Marvin Brienewischer and Mrs. Edwin Finkbeiner all of Bridgewater township.

Names on the panel were drawn by Ann Arbor Municipal Judge Francis L. O'Brien, sheriff George A. Petersen of Ann Arbor township, justice of the peace John S. Dobson and County Clerk Luella M. Smith.

CONCERT

With five concerts scheduled for the school year ahead, and the promise of three outstanding soloists, the Ann Arbor Civic Symphony is getting down to the regular weekly business (and fun) of its Tuesday Evening concert series in the instrumental rehearsal room at the Ann Arbor High School.

There are still openings for musicians who play any of the string instruments, or the bassoon, the French horn, the trombone or the drums. Rehearsals take place every Tuesday evening from 7:15 to 9:30. Mrs. James Robertson and Miss Ruth Das, both members of the orchestra, are personal co-chairmen and will be glad to talk to anyone interested. They can be reached at No. 2-6076, or at No. 8-851.

The public concerts, to be held with the exception of the June performance in the Ann Arbor High School auditorium, will be on November 1, with Charles Fisher, pianist; January 24, with Margery Schenel, harpist; March 20, with James Heintz, pianist; April 24, with the Ann Arbor Civic Ballet; and June 1, the annual West Park "Pop" concert. Robert Sator of Manchester is president of Civic Symphony.

NEW CAR

Henry Ford 11 today announced plans to produce a second economy car.

The new car will be named the Comet and will be sold by Mercury dealers beginning with "the spring selling season," he said.

The announcement was made here today by the Ford Motor Company president at a national meeting of Mercury-Edsel-Lincoln dealers.

Mr. Ford described the Comet as a car with "family-size roominess and outstanding economy, together with the most graceful and elegant styling."

"The Comet," he said, "will go to the market place in the spring of 1960 as the 'Artistocrat of the Economy Cars.'"

HOSPITAL

Members and friends of the Washtenaw County Hospital Auxiliary are invited to attend the semi-annual meeting of the Auxiliary on Wednesday, October 7th, 1959, at 1:00 p.m. at the hospital. Mrs. J. K. Annis, President, will conduct the meeting and members of the board will give their report. Following the business meeting will be the Fall Fair and Craft Sale, put on at the hospital by the patients and by members of the University of Michigan Gerontology Department who have been conducting the Federal Rehabilitation Project at the University during the past year. For sale will be aprons, tables, skirts, leather goods, rugs, and other items made by the patients. These items were made in craft classes and in the sheltered workshop. The Auxiliary will have baked goods for sale under the direction of Mrs. R. F. Kraker, Ways and Means Chairman. The Fair will last from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 to 8:00 p.m.

P.T.A. MEETING

The first meeting of the Manchester P.T.A. was a "get acquainted" night for teachers and parents. Mrs. Tapping introduced the elementary and junior high teachers, and Mr. Duban, the high school teachers. President Reno Feldkamp presented the new P.T.A. officers: mother vice-president, Mrs. T. W. Mennel, father vice-president, William Hamilton, teacher vice-president, Mrs. Marcel Troitz, secretary, Mrs. Lucille Wuerter, treasurer, Mrs. Hollie Ayres.

Mrs. Mennel spoke briefly of the programs planned for the coming year. The October meeting will be an "Open House" at the new elementary addition and everyone is invited to come and see how much was accomplished for the amount of money spent.

Mr. Tapping announced that at there will be a school in the near future to provide elementary and junior high pupils with paper, pencils and other small "everyday" necessities. Price lists will be sent home with the children.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Tump presented "Intertelton Interlude". First Mr. Sator told a little about this internationally known music camp which is about 12 miles from Tawasville, and about the scholarships which are given every summer by the Band Boosters, not only on the basis of musical ability, but also for qualities of character and good citizenship. Then Mrs. Snel introduced the four students who earned the scholarships this summer: Martha Boutell who played a clarinet solo; Mary Ann Paul, French horn; Hugh Higgins, clarinet; and Gary Hamilton, trumpet. They all played very well and were enthusiastically received.

LIBRARY

Manchester Township library board members and Mrs. Audley Smith, are busy rearranging the books at the local library in an effort to facilitate the use of materials and books which are available. Books separated for the various age groups and shelved in alphabetical order according to the author will be the first step.

Until the inventory is taken and the cataloging of the books is completed, service may be a bit slow at times, especially for school children and young people with specific reference assignments. Teachers who will be making important library assignments can help improve service by sending Mrs. Smith the information about the topics needed in advance, whenever possible.

N.Y.C. BRANCH

The inter-state commerce commission has scheduled a hearing on a request to abandon the New York Central's Jackson Toledo Branch at the Jackson court house, October 19, at 9:30 a.m.

In the Jackson area the abandonment of the line is opposed by railroad labor groups, and some 125 citizens of Napoleon and vicinity.

The line runs from Jackson to Napoleon, Norwell, Manchester, Clinton, Tecumseh, Blisfield to Toledo.

The Jackson-Toledo branch is one of the oldest in Michigan and one of the first lines north through Michigan from Toledo.

HOSPITAL

A fall fair to display and sell articles made by patients at the County Hospital will be held between 2 and 5 p.m. and 7 and 8 p.m. Wednesday, October 7 at the hospital at 2960 Washtenaw Road.

The event is part of a rehabilitation project being conducted by the University's division of gerontology and department of physical medicine.

At the fair, the public will be shown the "sheltered workshop" in which patients do several jobs for industries primarily in the Ann Arbor area. The craft class turns out articles similar to those on sale at the fair.

Proceeds from the sale will be divided between the patients who have contributed their time and skill to creation of the articles, and to the purchase of needed materials and equipment in the future.

Some of the supplies which are donated are loam rubber upholstery samples, wood paper and materials for rag rugs. Among the articles for sale at the fair will be tables, rag rugs, bread and cheese, boards, beaded mats, pillows, scratch pads, aprons, skirts and leather goods.

A bake sale will be held and refreshments will be served by the Washtenaw County Hospital Auxiliary.

VIEW OF HOME AFTER STORM

PICTURES BY MARIE SCHNEIDER

A Sharon township couple and their five children miraculously escaped injury at 1 a.m. yesterday when their frame home was blown down by gusts of wind.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fish and their children, Ruth, Stella, May, Gloria and James, all under 12, were asleep when a pounding wind and torrents of rain tore the house almost in two. Part of the roof caved in and one side was blown almost completely away when the parents guided their children out of the dwelling.

When the family reached safety, the house at Washburne and Sharon Hollow Rds. was knocked flat by the raging winds. The family is staying at the home of Richard Curtis at 3388 Sharon Hollow Rd. temporarily.

Four cows were killed and three others saved when a large barn on the Russell Waters farm at 3036 Zeeb Rd., Lodi township, was knocked down by the wind-storm. Waters called the Sheriff's Department at 7:30 a.m. yesterday to report several of his cattle were trapped in the collapsed barn.

Three large wreckers, aided by two farm tractors loaned by neighbors of Waters, succeeded in pulling down a sagging section of the barn still standing and then dragging the cattle from the portion of the barn already downed. Four of the cows were dead when they were found while three others appeared to be unharmed.

Waters told officers he did not hear the barn collapse during the night.

A driving rain accompanied by high winds swept through the Ann Arbor area Saturday night and early yesterday, downing wires and trees and blowing down a house and barn in rural areas west of the city. No one was injured.

City police said they received "at least a dozen" calls of tree branches and wires being blown down and landing in city streets in a two-hour period late Saturday night. Several parked cars were damaged by falling tree limbs and the Ann Arbor Fire Department responded to many calls to stand by at areas where "hot" wires were lying across pavement.

The family stayed at the Robert Curtis home, 3399 Sharon Hollow Road all night. Since then they have been living at the home of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McAtee on Washburne Road. Before the storm, the family had planned to move to 18700 Austin Road and part of their belongings had been moved to the new home. As a result and due to the whims of the wind storm, they lost very little of their household goods.

Fortunately, no one was injured seriously.

DR. SALSBUARY'S LABORATORIES

Dr. Salsbury's Laboratories, Charles City, Iowa, is holding a four-day Short Course on poultry diseases and management. At the conclusion of the course each student will receive a certificate signifying his satisfactory completion of the Poultry Short Course. Among the 16 students attending this class is Mr. W. Ray Beck of Manchester, who is associated with the Amstutz Hatcheries of Saline.

Practical instruction is being received by the students on poultry diseases and flock management problems from professionally trained staff members of Dr. Salsbury's Laboratories who are manufacturers of poultry and livestock pharmaceuticals and vaccines. He will attend lectures, clinical discussions and laboratory demonstrations relative to such subjects as Specific Diseases of Poultry and Poultry Parasites, Development of Disease, Poultry Management and Sanitation, Methods of Disease Prevention and Control, Metchandising and Selling.

WIN BY 6-0

By a score of 6-0, Manchester High's varsity football team edged Pinckney in the first game of the season last Friday night at the home field. Starting line-up for the Dutchmen consisted of Bob Nickerson and Ron Mann, guards; Dave Walton and Terry Huber, tackles; Doug Higgins and Roy Walters, ends; and Terry Ayers, center. In the backfield Jerry Creech started at quarterback, with Gary Hamilton and Bud England at halfback. Paul Reinhart was starting fullback. Both teams played at an even pace during the scoreless first half. The Dutchmen opened the second half by scoring the first time they got the ball. Bud England carried the ball over the two-yard line for the only score of the game. With a 1-0 record behind them, the Dutchmen head for Chelsea this Friday night, October 2, to try to improve their record against the Bulldogs. Byline: Eileen Townsend

EUROPE TRIP

Two M.H.S. graduates, Gretchen Holstein and Sarah Reck, have recently returned from summer trips to Europe. Gretchen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Holstein, 607 City Road, went to Germany as an exchange student sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches. While in Germany, Gretchen lived with a family in the small southern town of Balingen. In contrast to American schools, German schools offer no elective subjects, and students have only a six-week summer vacation. Gretchen found German daily news interesting, but less varied and exciting than the American books. Food is bought as needed because there is no refrigeration in many parts. Sarah, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Reck, 665 West Main, traveled to Europe with the Michigan Choral, a singing group of one hundred teenagers. This year's chorale was made up of thirty-six boys, sixty-three girls, and their pianist. The group traveled through Europe, presenting both formal and informal concerts, and singing religious and classical music, show tunes, American folk songs and Negro spirituals. Sarah and other members of the chorale had the opportunity to visit a number of world famous places. Both Sarah and Gretchen explained that they thoroughly enjoyed their trips but are currently beginning their freshman years at the University of Michigan.

CHEERLEADERS

Two squads of fourteen Manchester girls were chosen recently as varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders for the school year. Five of the varsity cheerleaders are seniors. They include Francine Purdy, captain, Martha Boutell, Carol Braun, Dolores Badnik, and all of cheerleaders. Three junior members of the same squad are Delores Cox, Karen Orlund, and Judy Lockidge. Members of the junior varsity cheerleading squad are all sophomores. Judy Braun captains the group, which consists of Mrs. Walton, Janice Klager, and Miss Patricia Wheeler. The new cheerleaders were selected on the basis of general cheerleading ability, personality, scholarship, neatness, cooperativeness, and participation in outside activities. Byline: Christie Allan

RAM DAY

The use of a good ram is still the best way to improve the sheep program and to insure a profit from next year's lamb crop. Many sheep raisers have found Ram Day to be a good way to buy a ram. This event will again be held at the Michigan State University Livestock Pavilion. The date is Monday, October 5, beginning at 10:00 A.M. At this time leading purebred breeders in the state bring in their rams and place them in pens. Each ram will carry a tag giving its age, weight, and price. Buyers may select any ram they wish at the price indicated. Approximately 200 rams will be on display at this ram "supermarket". All rams will be inspected before unloading and will have been clipped with lindane since June 1, 1959. Don't pass up this opportunity to buy a good ram this year.

APPOINTMENT

Appointment of Donald L. Ruhlig of Dexter, Michigan as a new leader for the 1959 Census of Agriculture was announced today by Field Director John E. Tharalson of the Census Bureau's regional office at Detroit. Mr. Ruhlig will direct a force of census takers who will be in the field in Washtenaw County. Before assuming his post, he will go to Lapeer where he will receive five days of training by a member of the Census Bureau's staff. After completing his training, Mr. Ruhlig will return to his district where he will spend several weeks recruiting census takers, and training them in preparation for the start of the field canvass on October 28.

Crippled Children

The Washtenaw County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. elected the following officers at their annual meeting at the home of Herbert O. Benz in Ann Arbor. The newly-elected president is Howard Hilton of Ann Arbor. Paul Niehaus of Chelsea is the vice-president. Miss Mary Naudé Wallace of Ypsilanti is secretary. Mrs. Frank Mickle of Ann Arbor is corresponding secretary and Ivan Friday of Ann Arbor is treasurer. Miss Patricia Walsh and Mrs. Gilbert Fletcher, both of Ann Arbor are members-at-large of the board of directors. George Boase, associate director of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. was also present at the meeting. At the business session the children's camp committee reported that 43 campers attended the recent Seal Camp sponsored entirely by Easter Seal money and ran for 12 days and accommodated children from all over Washtenaw county. The camp is at Patterson Lake.

IRON LAKE

Thirty-five property owners on Iron Lake in Manchester township petitioned the Washtenaw Board of Supervisors to take action to obtain a legal level for the lake. They said that establishment of a normal height and level would "protect land values on the lake and preserve the natural resources of the lake." The lake level has fluctuated to 10 inches this summer," Parr said. "They have water up to the cottages one day and yards full of sand the next. The lake, which is built by the damming of Iron Creek, would disappear if gates of the dam are left open.

A 1960 automobile from the Underwood Sales was damaged slightly in an accident at 5:05 p.m. Monday. Douglas Grady, 28, of Burton, was backing the car out of the garage and collided with an automobile driven by Edwin Ryter of Adrian.

E. D. STIERLE SUCCUMBS

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the Muehling Chapel for Ernest D. Stierle, 75, a life-long Freedom township farmer who died Thursday morning at the Saline Community Hospital after a three-month illness.

He was born on the farm homestead where he lived his entire life. The centennial farm is located at 10390 Waters road. He was born March 8, 1884, the son of David and Mary Stollsteimer Stierle.

Mr. Stierle was a member of St. Thomas Lutheran church, Freedom township. On December 8, 1915, he married Amanda Betz. She survives. Also surviving are two sons, Erwin E. of Ann Arbor and Neil N. at home; one daughter, Mrs. Norman Schneider of Selo township; and two grandchildren.

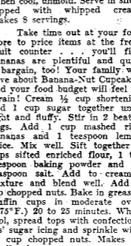

The Rev. Richard W. T. Bierlein officiated at the funeral and burial was at Bethlehem cemetery.

DESSERT

Here is an easy-to-prepare, especially welcome, busy autumn day's. Good cooking apples are in season now, so why not serve this flavorful Scandinavian Applesauce Cake made with sweet, fresh applesauce tonight? Mix 2 cups enriched bread crumbs, 1/2 cup sugar and 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Add 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine and blend well. Place a thin layer of the crumb mixture in a greased 4 1/2 x 8 1/2-inch loaf pan. Cover with a thin layer of fresh or canned sweetened applesauce, then more crumbs. Continue in this manner, ending with a layer of crumb mixture on top. You'll need about 2 1/2 cups applesauce. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 1/2 hours. When cool, unmold. Serve in slices topped with whipped cream. Makes 8 servings.

Girl, 12, Wounded By Playmate's Rifle

A 12-year-old girl was wounded in the back Saturday afternoon by a blast from a .22 caliber rifle which police say was accidentally fired by a playmate.

Officers said the girl was treated at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and was later released. Police said the girl and three friends had been examining a .22 caliber rifle owned by a 13-year-old boy just before the mishap.

As the children began leaving the room, a 12-year-old boy picked up the rifle. The barrel of the firearm hit a bedpost and the gun fired. Birdshot contained in a cartridge in the gun sprayed the girl's back and hips, police said.

DEMANDS HEARING

CLINTON — Mrs. Alice Johnson, 24 years old, demanded examination on a charge of passing no-account checks when arraigned Saturday before Justice L. J. Van Deusen. A hearing was set for Oct. 9 and Mrs. Johnson failed to post bond of $500. She is charged with writing $30 in checks in Tecumseh earlier this month without having an account on the bank against which they were drawn, police said. Mrs. Johnson was arrested Friday in Jackson.

Philo - House Wedding

Gowned in a floor length dress of bridal white satin and lace, Miss Beverly K. House, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William House of Route 2, Brooklyn, exchanged her marriage vows with Marvin H. Philo of Clinton Saturday evening. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. O. E. Priest at 7 p.m. in the Clinton Congregational church.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Philo of 207 Brown Street, Clinton, was attended by the bride's brother, Stanley E. House of Brooklyn, Mich.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the church social room where about 200 guests extended congratulations. The bride's table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, with candelabra and flowers completing the picture.

When the couple left for Sacramento, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed with the air force, the bride was wearing a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace over satin. The full skirt was accented with three rows of lace ruffles accompanied by touches of lilac of the vallet. She wore long lace mitts which ended in points and featured a row of tiny buttons on the backs. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of lace, trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. The bride's bouquet featured two baby white orchids in a cascade of white chrysanthemums tied with long white satin streamers. She also carried a white embossed Bible.

Her attendants were Miss Priscilla Herman of Clinton as maid of honor and Miss Cecile Rose of Tecumseh as bridesmaid. Their dresses were identical. Made of pink Chantilly lace, they were waist-length with rounded necklines. The style included a pink satin cummerbund and matching pink lace jackets. They wore accessories of a darker shade of pink and carried dainty bouquets of flowers.
