best time for making a hit with home-made cookies.

It's the time when the children come in hungry from a hard day's play, when the girls get in out of the cold for a cozy coffee klatch and when the man of the house is most likely to invade the kitchen for a late night snack.

The beauty of cookies is that they're so satisfying yet so easy to make. With the right tools, a batch of cookies can be made with little risk of error and practically no clean-up worries. For example, you can now get non-stick aluminum cookie pans that need no greasing, eliminate the chance of cookies sticking and can be cleaned with a simple rinsing. As with the popular non-stick frying pans, aluminum is used because its even-heating qualities work best with the durable plastic coating, reports The Aluminum Association. Here is a simple receipe for a cookie that will score with CHOCOLATE CHIP NUT COOKIES To make about 45 cookies: Cream together 1/2 cup outter, ½ cup brown sugar, ½ cup white sugar. Beat in 1 egg, ½ tsp. Sift and stir in 1 cur flour,  $\frac{1}{2}$  tsp. salt,  $\frac{1}{2}$  tsp. soda. Stir in ½ cup chopped nut meats, ½ cup semi-sweet chocolate chips. Drop on cookie pan with a teaspoon and bake at 375 degrees for about 10 minutes.

Plane Lands In Farmer's Field

A single engine plane made a forced landing in a field near here when it developed engine trouble at dusk Sunday.

The plane piloted by James McCorkle of Bramalea, Ontario, Canada was enroute from Wichita Kansas.

The pilot told Paul Widmayer, on whose field he landed, that he was a commercial pilot and was taking the plane to a customer in the Toronto area. He had changed his route in order to avoid storms: The plane was brought down without mishap about five miles from Manchester, north of the Sharon townhall near Sylvan and Pleasant Lake Roads.

Raymond Jacob Sr. saw the plane land and offered assistance as did other farmers in the area. Paul Widmayer towed the plane around the field Monday but one of the wheels locked and would be towed out on to Pleasant Lake Road which would serve as a runway.
