DUTCH SMASH ONSTED BY 22 POINTS

This is Curt's style, 29 points vs Chelsea, 26 points vs Onsted.

By Jon Hardenbergh

Manchester got back into the thick of things as their run-and-pass brought them a 88-66 victory. We now are 2-2 in the L.C.A.A. along with everyone else except league leader Blissfield (4-0).

We insisted on offense, pressed on defense and this combo held the Wildcats at bay. Onsted's tough center and Coach Bartel set a box-in-one defense with Craig Rogers as the "one". Craig had his hands full but giving Pawson only 10 points in the first half spelled doom. Pawson scored a game high of 29 points but it was nullified with Curt Fielder and Rick Krzyzaniak teaming up for 49 points, Curt dumping in 26 and Rick canning 23. This night was a benchwarmer's dream as being so far ahead enables all to play. Well, it's nice to see action but tonight all scored.

Here's a rundown on individual tallies: Fielder-26, R. Krzyzaniak-23, Turvey-16, Rogers-6, Little-5, Weir-4, N. Krzyzaniak-2, Daniels-2, Melcher-2, Achtenberg-2.

Manchester hit on 41 buckets, 6 of 17 free throws for 88 points. Onsted had 20 buckets, 26 of 36 free tosses (Pawson hit 11-11) for 66 points.

The Varsity now is 6-2 overall.

Richard Z. Wolf Elected President of Union Savings Bank

mirrored only by his service to the community. We are proud to be members of the area's banking scene under the presidency of an individual of Mr. Wolf's calibre."

Wolf joined the Union Savings Bank of Manchester as an assistant cashier in December of 1971. Shortly after coming to Manchester, Wolf was named cashier with the responsibility of day to day operations of the bank, making loans and completing all necessary banking forms and tax reports.

On March 4, 1976, Wolf was promoted to chief executive officer with the title of Executive Vice President and was named to the bank's board of directors.

Since March of 1976, the bank's total footings have risen from 17.6 million dollars to over 22.5 million dollars. Earnings have increased over 60 percent during that same period.

For over twelve years prior to coming to Manchester, Wolf was associated with the Capitol City State Bank of Des Moines, Iowa.

While at Capitol City State Bank he rose from bank messenger to various managerial and loan capacities.

Educational courses in banking completed by Wolf include 21 A. I. B. courses, standard and graduate certificates have been issued. He is a graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin and is a graduate of the Senior Bank Officer's Seminar sponsored by Harvard University.

Wolf is past president of the Manchester Jaycees and United Way chairman for the 1977-78 drive that achieved 114% of its charitable goal. He lives in Manchester with his wife Nancy, son Von and daughter Virginia.

Stanton G. Roesch, Chairman of the Board of Union Savings Bank of Manchester, has announced the election, by the bank's board of directors, of Richard Z. Wolf to the position of bank president. Union Savings Bank has offices in Manchester, Pleasant Lake and Bridgewater. Wolf has served the bank since March 4, 1976 as chief executive officer with the title of Executive Vice President. Roesch has been acting as both president and board chairman. Roesch stated, "The elevation of Mr. Wolf as president of Union Savings Bank is the board of directors way of demonstrating the satisfaction of the Board in the splendid job Mr. Wolf has done during his tenure with the bank." Roesch further added, "Our confidence in the bank's future under the direction of Mr. Wolf is unlimited. Mr. Wolf's contribution to the success of this bank is

MANCHESTER FAMILY SERVICE

Happy New Year from Manchester Family Service to the Manchester School District and the Southern parts of Manchester and Bridgewater Townships which are included in the Manchester Christmas Bureau Project in cooperation with the Salvation Army.

The Christmas Bureau served 38 families, totaling 140 individuals (84 of whom were children), referred by the Department of Social Services, the Wash-tonaw County Health Department, Social Security and local groups.

These families were given their choice of a food or clothing order (the amount based on the Ann Arbor Salvation Army criteria for assistance), a box of groceries from the Scavenger Hunt and a free choice of used clothing, toys and household items from the Christmas Shop. 18 lovely dolls were supplied by Manchester Ann Arbor Federal (the remainder went to Spaulding for Children) and our own "doll-maker-supreme", Mrs. Carl Schwab, furnished 3 dressed dolls, 4 soft handmade dolls and 6 handmade toy animals, while Mrs. Mina Amerman's knitted slippers have become a tradition with the Shop.

Members of Beta Sigma Phi sorority have become experts at the busy project of "setting-up and taking-down" the Christmas Shop. We have St. Mary's Catholic Church to thank for the location this year.

The Scavenger Hunt was accomplished, in spite of inclement weather and transportation problems, under the guidance of Mrs. William Schwab for the Girl Scouts and Mrs. Judy Miller for the Future Homemakers of America. 469 cans of food and 38 packages along with a bundle of coupons and $10.00 in cash were collected. We realize that the entire village was not covered due to unavoidable circumstances and we apologize to those we missed. Thank you anyway.

The Jaycees and Jaycees auxiliary delighted eleven children, ages five through ten, from nine of the Manchester School District families served this year, with their annual Shopping Spree.

Through anonymous donors 45 Senior Citizens were remembered, a Jaycees Christmas tree went to the home of a large family, and a new toy train made dreams come true at a Foster Children's home. This year the clothing and articles left over from the Christmas Shop were picked up immediately by the Salvation Army for further distribution in the area.

All of this was possible because of the United Way of Manchester and gifts from the following sources: Bethel United Church of Christ Women's Fellowship, Emanuel United Church of Christ Women's Fellowship, Manchester United Methodist Church Women, Sharon United Methodist Church Women, Mr. George Kennedy, Mrs. Joseph E. Moore, anonymous donors and $100 from the Huron Valley Nighthawks Motorcycle Club.

COMMUNITY SCHOOLS CLOSING INFORMATION

When schools are closed it is necessary to have a procedure that is understood by parents and students.

1. When it is determined that schools should be closed because of weather conditions early in the morning, the following stations will be notified: WJR - 760, WPAG - 1050, WNBS - 1290, and WAAM - 1600. If weather is bad and the station you have tuned in does not mention Manchester, turn to one of the other stations listed just in case there is a breakdown in communications between the station and school.

2. When a situation develops during the day that jeopardizes the health and safety of students we will dismiss early. Stations WPAG, WNBS, and WAAM will announce this dismissal.

AFTER SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

When schools are closed, all special activities and after school and evening activities are cancelled. If conditions during the day change so these activities can take place, this information will be broadcast on the three local stations listed above or in the case of activities involving only a few people, by telephone. The decision to recall these special activities will be made by 12:00.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Steele:
 Please allow me to express my anger over the incident that took place this past Christmas Eve.
 Shortly after all of our luminara candles were lit by the residents of Ann Arbor Street, someone deliberately drove up over the curb in from the Sloat residence and knocked the lit candles down. Those who saw the car were not able to get a license number.

 Even though they weren't expensive, our new neighbors who presented us with this beautiful idea, took the time to make the phone calls and to gather and distribute the materials, and many of us residents braved the pouring down rain to set up and light the candles.
TO WHOEVER RUINED SOMETHING MEANINGFUL TO ALL OF US, "I HOPE YOU ARE PLEASED."
 Thank you,
 Ms. Karen Jenter

State Readies Distribution of New Transportation Maps

Michigan's 1978-79 Official Transportation Map has made its debut at the Renaissance Center, the $337 million riverfront development in downtown Detroit.

The towers of the center are featured prominently on the map's front panel, which carries a stunning photo of the Detroit skyline and its reflection on the waters of the Detroit River.

The State Highway Commission introduced the new highway and transportation map at Ren-Cen to emphasize statewide interest in the revitalization of downtown Detroit.

Said Commission Chairman Peter B. Fletcher of Ypsilanti: "Over the next two years, three million copies of this map will be distributed throughout Michigan and throughout the country, as well as to many other parts of the world. It will help to spread the word that Detroit is a vital and interesting city—the heart of one of the nation's major metropolitan areas."

Fletcher noted that other areas of the state are well advertised on the major inside panel of the map, which features Michigan's ethnic festivals.

Another inside panel features the State Capitol, which will observe its centennial on Jan. 1, 1979. The same panel shows and identifies newer state government buildings which comprise the Capitol Complex in Lansing.

THE NEW MAP WILL BE AVAILABLE FREE TO THE PUBLIC AT NUMEROUS

LOCATIONS THROUGHOUT THE STATE STARTING THE SECOND WEEK OF JANUARY.

For the second time, the new map will serve for a two-year period, 1978-79. Prior to 1976, the Highway Commission revised and published a highway and transportation map annually.

The new map updates the 9,450-mile state highway system and transportation services, involving some 1,200 changes and additions from the previous map. It shows the locations of airports, Amtrak rail passenger lines and depots, intercity bus terminals, domestic and international seaports and passenger and auto ferry routes.

The 1978-79 map contains a treasure house of Michigan facts and figures, including 16 smaller city or regional maps. These include the Detroit area as far as Ann Arbor to the west and Pontiac to the north; and Battle Creek, Bay City, Benton Harbor-St. Joseph, Flint, Grand Rapids, Holland, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Marquette, Midland, Monroe, Muskegon, Port Huron and Saginaw.

The panel on ethnic festivals features Detroit's summer-long series of festivals; the Bavarian Festival at Frankenmuth; the Highland Festival and Games at Alma; Dutch Tulip Time at Holland; the Danish Festival at Greenville; the Alpenfest at Gaylord and the Finn Fest at Hancock.

For the 1978-79 period, three million maps will be printed at a total cost of $250,345, the low bid submitted by Michigan Lithographing Co. of Grand Rapids. That figures out to 8.4 cents a map.

Starting the second week in January, the new map can be obtained, at no cost, at numerous locations throughout the state, including all District Offices and Travel Information Centers operated by the Department of State Highways and Transportation; State Police posts, District Offices of the Department of Natural Resources, local chambers of commerce, municipal government offices, regional tourist associations and most local radio, TV and newspaper offices.

The Department of State Highways and Transportation also will mail maps to individuals upon request. Requests must be made on a post card (not in sealed envelopes), providing the name, address and zip code of the requester. Post cards should be mailed to: MAPS, Dept. of

I was looking over a survey as to why people choose a particular bank as "their bank".

One of the main prerequisites was convenience.

Well, we can't move our bank to a location to meet everyone's needs but we can qualify for other important reasons considered when choosing a bank.

A friendly, helpful, interested attitude. Now I am just conceited enough to believe we score ones on this requirement.

Absence of errors in accounting. Well, we all make errors. I do believe we make far fewer than most financial institutions. If I am wrong on this one, let me.

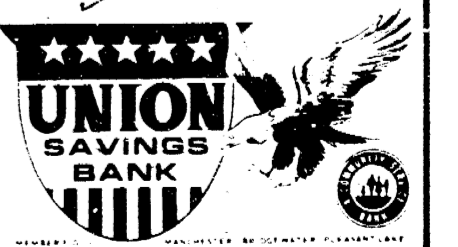

Another item most people seek when choosing a bank is "complete service".

To begin, only a bank offers "complete service". Non-banks hit and miss. A little of this and a little of that.

When we compare our bank to other banks, I again believe we rate pretty high on the scale. If it's good for our customers, then it's good for us. This is how we build our full line-up of services.

So, if you're seeking a good bank, look no further. We win the race hands down. If you don't believe it, ask me.

THE BASIC ENERGY PEOPLE

Farmers and ranchers are the basic energy people. They use 3 per cent of the nation's daily supply of gas, oil, and other energy products to produce food energy and fiber for all of us—plus plenty to export to people of other nations. Three percent—jet planes burn more than that!

These basic energy people are so efficient that they take that 3 per cent of the oil and gas they use and turn it into enough food energy to pay for two-thirds of the oil we import, in addition to feeding the people here in the United States.

While farmers have done much to trim their energy needs—that gas, oil and electricity are expenses to them—even if they can cut back 15 per cent, overall for the nation, that's only a reduction of about a half a per cent of total consumption—hardly noticeable.

Greater cutbacks would reduce the amount of food energy they can grow and that would affect us all at the grocery store in shelves less than full and perhaps even empty at certain times.

It's little wonder, then, that when people make decisions on priorities for gas and oil in times of shortages, farmers and ranchers rate pretty high on the list.

We need food. Agriculture is the only industry that produces more energy than it consumes. That's also something to keep in mind when you sit down at the family dinner table. The meat and potatoes, the salad and vegetables, the milk, bread and dessert all started on the farm. They're the basic energy supply you and I depend upon for continued life.

WHAT'S COOKING IN MICHIGAN?

By Carl Olson

Michigan Department of Agriculture

I know a lot of people have had carrot cake but have you ever combined potatoes and almonds for a taste treat?

No, it's not a vegetable dish at all, it's Norwegian Almond Bars and a treat around our house.

Sift together 2 cups of flour, 3/4 cup sugar, and one teaspoon each baking powder and salt. Cut into this 3/4 cup Michigan butter until well mixed. You will have dry, fine particles at this point.

Press three-quarters of this mixture into an ungreased 12 by 8 by 2 inch pan and bake in a 375 oven for ten minutes.

Meanwhile, blend one-half cup of cold mashed potatoes with 1 1/4 cups of fine confectioner's sugar, 1 1/2 cups of ground almonds, one teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon cardamom, 1 teaspoon of water and one egg white.

Mix well and spread over the partially baked crust.

Remember that you only used 3/4 of the first mixture in the crust? Well, combine the remaining one-quarter with the egg yolk you have left and roll this out on a floured surface to a 10 by 6 inch size. Cut the rolled dough into 1/2 inch strips and place across the filling.

Now pop this back into the oven and leave it there for another 20 minutes.

The combination of cinnamon and cardamom fills the kitchen with a marvelous aroma and makes this into a special Norwegian treat.

I know I'm bringing some into my office at the Michigan Department of Agriculture for everyone to taste.

SKIING NOT JUST FOR RICH

Skiing may be suffering from an image problem. The glamour and sizzle of modern resorts make many people mistakenly believe only the rich can ski. Wrong — in fact, most people who ski are far from wealthy.

Skiers come from almost as many different walks of life as there are occupations and age groups. Young and old (Lowell Thomas celebrated his 84th birthday while skiing last spring), students and housewives, corporate executives and the guy who runs the filling station, ski.

Their incomes range from the affluent to the housewife who may set aside lift ticket money from her weekly allowance, from students scraping together enough tuition for next semester to retirees living on a fixed income.

The simple fact is that it doesn't take a six-figure income to learn to ski. You can do it for under $100, in fact. And you can continue to ski after that for less than you'd imagine.

The biggest expense in learning to ski is your time, not your dollars. Ski areas, large and small, offer a wide range of package plans aimed at the new skier, from once-a-week nighttime lessons to a week or more of consecutive daily instruction.

The best way to learn is to be able to put in at least a week at one time. Five or six consecutive days means you're able to maintain your rhythm, keep up the momentum of instruction... and, most importantly, you truly can measure your improvement. Obviously, if you can't afford a week, a weekend — or two days back-to-back — is the next best alternative.

State Highway System Free of Winter Detours

For the first time in several years, winter driving on state highways and freeways will be free of all detours, the Department of State Highways and Transportation reports.

The only area of construction remaining on state highways where work will interfere with traffic throughout the winter is on US-10 (US-24 and Telegraph Road) in Oakland County. One section is between Long Lake and Square Lake roads in Bloomfield Hills and the other between Twelve-Mile and Fifteen-Mile roads in Bloomfield Hills and Southfield.

Winter weather has halted work on major freeway widening and other projects throughout the state, leaving all highways fully open to traffic until spring, when work will resume.

The average American consumes less than two pounds of veal a year.

The Safest New Year's Resolutions

More than 20 million household accidents occur each year, including some 27,000 deaths. And, four million people are disabled a day or longer from injuries received in home-related accidents annually.

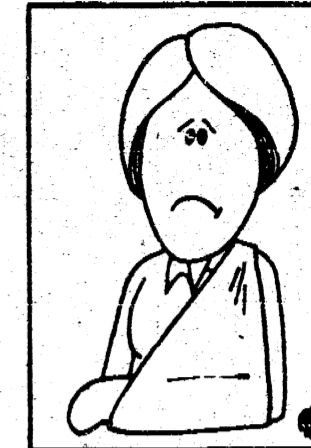

Safety rules are often simply a matter of common sense. People often tend to forget the rules or develop sloppy safety habits. A reminder now and then often helps.

With the start of the new year, the Scott Paper Company Home Service Center in Philadelphia offers some resolutions to make your home a safer place.

The single largest cause of home accidents is due to "falls." And, say these experts, two-thirds of all fatal home falls occur at floor level — a spilled liquid, an object on the floor, a rug edge that is turned up. Actually, they say, home fall hazards exist everywhere.

Eliminating Kitchen Hazards
If the kitchen is the work center of the home, it is also frequently the scene of home accidents. Here are some preventive measures which can be taken:

- All work areas — particularly around the stove — should be well lighted.
- Turn the handles of pots and pans toward the rear or side of the stove to avoid possible spills and burns.
- When kitchen spills do occur — whether on the stove, the counter or the floor — wipe them up immediately with heavy, absorbent ScottTowels. A solution spilled on the stove can cause a fire and something spilled on the floor can easily cause a fall.

• Handle knives and other sharp kitchen tools carefully and never use any electric apparatus when your hands are wet or while touching a sink or faucet. (This is a good tip to remember in the bathroom, also.)

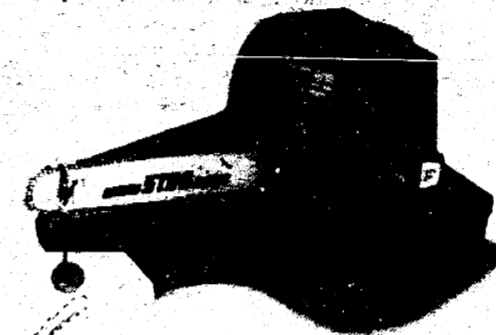

Preventing Bathroom Falls
The bathroom is also often the scene of falls.

• Wet floors are slippery and non-skid rugs help prevent falls.
• Quickly wipe up spills with a good heavy absorbent paper towel. (It's a good idea to install a paper towel holder in the bathroom, kitchen or anywhere else in the house where spills are likely to occur.)

• A non-skid rubber mat or abrasive treads are a "must" in the bath or shower.
• A "grab bar" is another good idea — especially if there are older people in the home.

And, finally, add the experts — these are resolutions both you and your family can live with.

Snow Crab Teams Up With Steak

The latest trend in elegant dining is Steak and Crab. This delightful combination impresses guests as well as pleases the busy hostess.

A favorite choice of crab to use for this entree is convenient Snow Crab Claws. Harvested off the Alaska coast, it is noted for its delicate, sweet flavor. Each claw has snow-white meat contained in a bright red shell.

To prepare the Snow Crab Claws, simply saute them in butter and garlic while the steaks broil. Then arrange them on a platter with the steaks and drizzle the butter mixture over all.

Look for Snow Crab Claws in the frozen food sections of your supermarket. They come in a 12 oz. package and each one contains 8 claws. The claws also make excellent appetizers, served chilled with a dipping sauce.

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| 12 oz. large frozen Alaska Snow Crab Claws | 2 cloves garlic, minced |
| 1/4 cup butter | 2 tablespoons minced green onion |
| 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard | 4 steaks, broiled to desired doneness |
| 1/8 teaspoon Tabasco sauce | |

Thaw and drain crab claws. Melt butter with dry mustard and Tabasco sauce. Add crab claws, garlic and green onion. Saute 5 minutes, just until heated through, basting frequently with butter mixture. Serve crab claws on warm platter with steaks. Drizzle remaining butter mixture over crab claws and steaks. Makes 4 servings.

Sweet Spanish Onions Perk Up Potatoes

When onions play an essential part in a recipe, the Sweet Spanish variety are the ones to select. This unique member of the onion family is famous for its extreme mildness and large size. Sweet Spanish onions offer the distinctive flavor of an onion, but without the harshness of other varieties.

For Skillet Onion and Potato Slices, snow white slices of Sweet Spanish onion and sliced cooked potatoes are sauteed separately; then the two are combined to mingle the flavors. A sprinkling of salt and freshly ground pepper and a garnish of chopped parsley add the finishing touches.

You'll find Sweet Spanish onions in your supermarket from September through March. These giant beauties, grown in Eastern Oregon and Southwestern Idaho, are round in shape and have a thin golden-bronzed skin which crackles to the touch. You'll especially enjoy the delicate flavor of Sweet Spanish onions where raw onion is used, as in relishes, salads and sandwiches.

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------|
| 1 medium Idaho-Oregon Sweet Spanish onion | Salt and freshly ground pepper |
| 1 pound potatoes | 2 tablespoons chopped parsley |
| 1/2 cup butter or margarine | |
- Peel and slice onion. Should make about 2 cups. Cook potatoes in boiling, salted water until tender. Peel and slice. Saute onions in 1/4 cup butter or margarine over medium heat until golden. Remove onions. Add remaining butter or margarine and saute potatoes until golden. Return onions to skillet to heat through. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and parsley. Makes 4 to 5 servings.
