Project Completed

The Manchester Chicken Broil, Inc. project of moving and rebuilding the softball diamond on the Athletic Field. located at Vernon St. has been completed. The storage and concession building was completed in 1979. It required a lot of work and time to accomplish the job and it was through the cooperation of many individuals and companies, with their equipment, which was donated, that held the cost to a minimum and made it possible to be completed.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone and print a list of the contributors: Union Construction Co., Emery Garlick Co., Clyde James and Assoc., Superior Land Developers, Jim Hansen, Alber Farms, Jean Wheeler, Dave Bunn, Rafalski and Son, Silkworth Tire, Manchester Public Works Dept., Mana's Mill and a number of community

The committee appreciated your cooperation and please excuse the oversite, if anyone was left off this list, because it was not intentional

On June 19th, Ms. Barbara Lund visit me. She suggested that if I felt up to a short drive the next evening, I should stop at her mill in Norvell. She was having an "end of the year party". June 20th was a beautiful day, and my sister from Ohio, Gerry Lincicome, her son Dan. Patricia and Harold Settles, and my son Edward and I went to Norvell. It was a beautiful drive and I enjoyed it after spending time in the hospital. In fact it was one of the first relaxed drives I had

Hours

By Appointment

It was great to see and talk to so many people. Ms. Lamd's mill was a great setting for an outdoor party. The band arrived and began playing. The music was good and the sun setting over the pond was beautiful. When the band took an intermission, a group of people came over to "chit-chat" with me.

Then Ms. Lund told me that this was not only an end of the year party, but also a Community Benefit for me. Those of you who know me, are aware I am not usually at a loss for words. However, at that moment. I was speechless.

During my prolonged illness and operations, I have received many nice cards, flowers, calls and visits from people

The Middle School Students and Staff had a dance and from those proceeds purchased a beautiful tape recorder for me. The Middle School Student Council sent me beautiful flowers.

Between my operations, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Settles and family, allowed me to use their home for my convalescence. They were second parents to my son Edward during this trying time.

I wish to thank all of you for your prayers, kind thoughts and deeds during my illness. God willing, I will be back at my desk in the fall working with you and

VA Celebrates 50th Anniversary

In recognition of the Veterans Administration's 50th anniversary, the VA chief of chaplains has called on churches across the nation to ask veterans to participate in religious services the weekend of July

"It is my hope that the contribution of veterans to the nation will be recognized by all local churches, synagogues and chapels," said Chaplain Corbin L. Cherry. On the same weekend, chaplains in VA medical centers also have been asked to encourage veterans to participate in serv-

"We are soliciting the cooperation of the local clergy so that both veterans and non-veterans will understand the significance of VA's goals and the significant part the veteran has played in our country," said Chaplain Cherry.

The VA has sent letters to the major denominations for distribution to clergy across the country to encourage wide-scale participation in the 50th anniversary observance. The VA was created on July 21, 1930, by Presidential Executive Order.

"This looks to be a great time for not only the renewal of church, synagogue and chapel ties, but for a renewal of the very basic principles on which our nation was founded," Chaplain Cherry said.

TAXES, TAXES, AND MORE TAXES

While April 15 is still painfully sharp in our memories, let's take a look at where to place a definite limit on how much we have been heading on the tax scene. Uncle Sam can reach into our pockets. during the past five years.

Overall, the federal tax take has increased more than 76 percent in the five-year period, with some individual forms of tax going up over 200 percent. Taxes paid for the operation of state governments have gone up nearly 70 percent in the last five years, and taxes to support county and municipal governments have also increased about 70 per-rates are cut on the income tax. The Congress is currently engaged in an effort to develop and adopt a balanced budget for the fiscal year beginning this fall, but if it is achieved, it will be done-not by cutting spending-but by increasing taxes.

That is why the only hope left for taxpayers is a constitutional amendment to not only require a balanced budget, but

HIT OR MISS by farley

I have a more or less interesting collection of notes about various things that some day might be of interest to those who read this column and now and then we get 'em out and shuffle through them; throw some away and then tuck the rest back again. Maybe we should get some of them out and put them together in a column of miscellany.

But first I want to correct a statement that I recently made when I stated that a young ones expect it and the older ones Senator and a Congressman had been convicted of dipping into the U.S. Treasury illegally. We find that we have ignored quite a number of others unintentionally. A survey made recently shows that there were, since 1970 nine Republican legislators charged with illegal Family En Route acts while abscounding with public funds. Six of these were found guilty and the other three were discharged and the charges dropped. There were also, during this period, fifteen Democrats so charged, and thirteen of them were found guilty and two were freed. I didn't intentionally exclude from this group anyone who is entitled to the honor thereof.

I heard some time ago, a tape recording made by several young people who are permanently confined to wheel chairs following motorcycle or automobile crashes and every instance the victim mentioned how easy it would have been to aveid their accident-if the culprit had been sober, or courteous or prudent or in other words had cared just a bit more.

My hat is off to the fellow I heard about the other day. A friend of his stopped at his home and saw, piled on the dining room table a considerable pile for garden seeds in large variety. "Where are you going to plant all those seeds the friend asked him?' "Oh I have quite a few gardens the friend replied, but I don't plant, water, weed or hoe any of 'em, but I have a large variety of fresh vegetables. Every year l hand out seeds to my friends who have gardens and when it comes time to harvest the vegetables they all remember where they got the seeds.

Sam Levinson discussing child punishment American style says: "About 6:15 the mother, having had enough misbehavior for the day, gets dramatic, turns to the child and says 'Go to your room. He's got a TV set there, he's got his own refrigerator, they send his dinner up to him and then they leave him for the evening with an 18-year-old baby sitter. And he's being punished - his father didn't live like that on his honeymoon."

The IRS it seems, has been with us grandfather's papers, the following; a tax Moore, Financial Chairperson of the bill and notation over a hundred years old. project. It read: "Mr. Whitney: As you see your taxes amount to $5.55, I received $5.50 which leaves a balance of five cents and Help Wanted also five cents for this letter and postage. every man would soon make dollars. 428.8126.

3rd Annual Manchester Street Fair

If you enjoy good art, good food, good entertainment, and good discounts on merchant's wares, you'll enjoy the "good" Third Annual Manchester Street Fair. This year's fair will descend on Manchester on Saturday, August 9th and bring with it a delightful assortment of things for everyone from 2 to 92 to enjoy.

Manchester is beginning to get a rep utation for the good quality arts and crafts that it attracts and the spaces for this year's fair are filling up fast. Along with the arts and crafts and merchant's wares that are for sale, there will be many different free demonstrations to fascinate every interest. Among the demonstrations already set up are blacksmithing, stained glass, basket making, spinning, bobbin and knitted lace, soft sculpture and soap making.

If you're not into the visual arts, how about the theatre? Throughout the day the Black Sheep Theatre will be giving short skits to entertain the theatrically music to serenade the crowds as they
